HUMAN TRAFFICKING TO DUBAI Judgement today

BSS, Dhaka

Women and Children Repression, Prevention Tribunal-2 here will pronounce the judgement on a human trafficking case today.

Sub-inspector Abdus Sattar filed the case with Gulshan thana on November 13, 1996 against five people including two women on charge of sending three minor Bangladeshi to Dubai to work as camel jockeys.

Judge Kazi Rahmatullah will deliver the judgement after 63 working days of the trial.

With examining 14, out of 18 prosecution witnesses, the court fixed the date for delivering the judgement after the end of arguments from both the sides on August 20.

The tribunal framed charge against five accused on April 4, 1997 and the trial of the case had started in absence of one of the accused Abdul Karim.

The prosecution story is that the five accused trafficked Masud alias Shohel, Faruq and Berek -- alluring their parents to provide them better job in Dubai.

The accused Anowara Begum took Masud alias Shohel from her mother Selina Begum, a resident of Samiruddin Slum at Nurer Chala under the police station giving assurance of providing her son a work.

In the same way, another accused

Ramija Khatun also took away two sons of Altabi Begum from the same place and trafficked them to Dubai.

STRIKE AT JU Many students leave dormitories

JU CORRESPONDENT

Academic activities at Jahangirnagar University (JU) came to a virtual halt yesterday, the first day of an indefinite strike called by the Bangladesh Chhatra League (BCL), student wing of the main opposition Awami League.

The BCL enforced the strike in all educational institutions to protest the grenade attack on AL rally in Saturday.

Appeal for help

Runa Akhter, an SSC candidate, has been fighting for her life in a hospital bed after she suffered severe burns from a domestic accident recently, says a press release.

Doctors have suggested immediate surgery involving Tk 2 lakh, but her father, being a schoolteacher, could not afford it.

He has appealed to the generous people to extend a helping hand to save his daughter.

Contributions can be sent to the following bank account: Runa Akhter, Savings A/C No. 21133362, Prime Bank Ltd., Motijheel Branch, Dhaka.

Most classes and examinations did not take place and the campus wore a deserted look as the students did not turn up for fear of possible clashes between the Jatiyatabadi Chhatra Dal and the BCL.

Many students have also left the dormitories amid deteriorating political situation.

About 300 students, teachers, officers and employees under the banner of Bangabandhu Parishad took out a protest procession on the campus in the morning and called on the four-party alliance government to step down immediately.

Later at a rally, the speakers strongly criticised the government for not taking any action against those carrying out bomb attacks across the country.

Prof Suvash Chandra presided over the rally.

Leaders and workers of the 11-party alliance march in a procession in the city yesterday demanding punishment to those involved in all bomb attacks across the country.
