National Day for Girl Child today

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

The National Day for Girl Child will be observed today to create awareness about the rights of girl children.

The theme of the day is 'Our Commitment and Girl Child Rights'. Different child rights organisations have taken programmes to observe the day.

Girl Child Advocacy Forum will bring out a procession from Bangladesh Shishu Academy premises at 8.00am.

Later, the forum will also arrange a discussion at the National Press Club at 10.00am.

On the occasion, the Hunger Project and Nari Maitree will also hold several programmes.

Leaders of different Child Rights organisations called for social movement and stringent enforcement of laws to protect girl children from all forms of discriminations.
