The Health Economics Unit, MOHFW invites bids from qualified consultancy firm/research organisation to submit detail proposal following the TOR given below to be short-listed to conduct studies under Health Economics Unit. Bids are welcomed from government, semi-government, autonomous institutions, private companies and NGOs.

Terms of Reference
Background and objectives of tender: The Health Economics Unit (HEU) is responsible for initiating policy relevant research to support the Health, Nutrition and Population Sector Programme (HNPS). HEU is headed by the Joint Chief and Line Director under the MOHFW. HEU carries out research in two main ways. Larger studies are tendered on an individual basis. To support this category of studies, it is intended to create a short-list of organisations that have satisfied general criteria of research capability and capacity and who can be called upon to carry out individual pieces of research. A number of broad topic areas in which short-listed organisations may be expected to work including:
Costing of Services, Social and Community Health Insurance, Beneficiary Incidence Analysis, Public Expenditure Review, National Health Accounts, Impact Analysis of Different Intervention and Regulation, Demand Surveys, Management and Governance Issues, GIS, Gender analysis.

Contract Management: No contracts will be awarded as a consequence of this tender. A short-list of firms eligible to apply to conduct specific studies will be established. Any contracts awarded to those on the short-list will be governed by Government of Bangladesh rules.

Qualifications: In order to qualify to apply to be on the short-list the organisation should satisfy the following basic requirements:
(1) Academic competence across a range of health policy and economics areas including at least three (3) of health economics, health care financing, costing, economic evaluation, health and population management, medical statistics and econometrics.
(2) Demonstrated experience in carrying out quantitative studies within the health sector (examples of at least four (4) such studies should be given). Experience in developing including questionnaire design, undertaking fieldwork, data analysis, is essential. Experience in undertaking different types of qualitative surveys would be an advantage.
(3) Capacity to carry out studies -- as demonstrated by the submission of 5-10 staff CVs of people working for the organisation able to work on health system studies.
(4) A short description not more than 3 type written pages including brief methodology, staffing, outline time-plan and rough breakdown of a budget of not more than 15 (fifteen) lakh taka of how the organisation would undertake a study on: "Women health seeking behavior."

Rules governing competition:
Submissions including statement of capability, institutional curriculum vitae, 8-10 short (two page) individual curriculum vitae and response to case example, should be submitted in persons to the office of the Joint Chief and Line Director, Health Economics Unit by 1pm on the 28th October, 2004 and all the tender will be opened in front of the representative of the tendering firm if any. Late submissions will not be considered. The evaluation committee will establish short-list of organisations based on the following criteria:
