Police action on N'ganj procession

40 injured, 15 arrested

STAFF CORRESPONDENT
 Forty leaders of different political parties and garment workers were injured in a police action on their procession in Narayanjanj yesterday.
 Police also arrested more than 15 people when the leaders and workers were marching in a procession to mark the first anniversary of death of a garments worker killed in police firing in Narayanjanj last year.
 Police arrested a number of leaders of Communist Party of Bangladesh, Bangladesher Samajtantrik Dal and Chhatra Front and several garments workers.
 To protest the police action, different organisations staged demonstrations in Dhaka and condemned the police repression on the procession.
 At a rally at Paltan, Bangladesh Garment Workers Trade Union Centre demanded action against the policemen responsible for injuring the protesters.
 It also demanded immediate release of the leaders and workers.
 The CPB, BSD and Left Democratic Front also condemned the police action.
 In a statement, CPB leaders Shahidullah Chowdhury and Muzahidul Islam Selim said it would not be possible to stifle people's free through arrest and torture. They also demanded immediate release of the leaders and workers.

Special trains on Eid

BSS, Dhaka
 Bangladesh Railway (BB) will introduce special trains on various routes to facilitate homebound passengers on the occasion of Eid-ul-Fitr.
 Four special trains will play on Dhaka-Noakhali, Dhaka-Jamalpur and Chittagong-Chandpur routes from November 11, a BR press release said.
 Two more special trains will also ply between Chittagong and Chandpur. All inter-city trains will also operate on weekly holidays from November 7 to November 25.
 However, no inter-city train will be operated on the Eid day.
 Travelling passengers have been advised to contact local station masters for more details, the press release said.

Workers threaten tough movement

STAFF CORRESPONDENT
 There is no alternative but to wage a toughest movement across the country to realise the logical demands of labourers and workers, leaders of Shilpa-Sramik-Karmachari Rakha Samannay Parishad said yesterday.
 The workers will realise their long-standing demands, including payment of salary arrears and bonus before Eid, through massive resistance, they warned at a rally at Mukhtanganj in the city.
 The Parishad observed the 'Black Day' yesterday in commemoration of a garments worker killed in Narayanjanj on November 3 last year and in protest against the shut-down of mills and factories, privatisation of banks and repression on workers.

On the one hand, the government is destroying the industrial sector as per prescriptions of the World Bank (WB), and on the other hand, it is keen to give immunity to the WB so that both of them can serve their own interest, the leaders alleged.
 "By closing down the industries, including the country's largest jute mill (Adamjee Jute Mill), the government has pushed the economy to the brink of ruination and rendered millions of workers jobless," said Roy Romesh, general secretary of Jatiya Sramik League.
 Such anti-worker policy will hasten the fall of the government, he warned.
 The government has not taken any precautionary measure yet to save the garment sector after the phasing out of quota facilities, Roy said.
 "The government as well as industry owners are totally indifferent to our logical demands such as announcement of minimum salary and the right to form trade union," he added.
 Parishad leaders Nurul Islam, Abdul Matin, Shafiqur Rahman Mazumder, Sahidullah Chowdhury, Shafi Ahmed, Abdul Kader Howlader, Abdullah Sarker, Jakir Hossain and Lutfur Rahman also spoke at the rally.
