

EID SHOPPING SPREE

Eid means joy. Eid means buying something for the dear ones. Eid means shopping frenzy. And Dhaka city is now in the grip of shopping fever. The malls are overflowing with shoppers, streets are full with bumper-to-bumper traffic, and sellers are finding it hard to keep their shops well-stocked. The floods, the political uncertainties nothing could dampen the Eid mood. Reasonable prices only jacked up the consumers' appetite. The government has stepped up security to stop mugging ahead of the Eid. Rab teams are moving around the city on motorcycles. Police have been stationed at shopping malls. All this to make the Eid a happy happening.
