Robbery in Rab guise

STAFF CORRESPONDENT, Khulna

A gang of six armed miscreants wearing the uniform of Rapid Action Battalion (Rab) committed a robbery at the residence of businessman Arun Dutt at Murihatty in the city under Khulna thana on Wednesday night.

According to the FIR, the robbers looted money and gold ornaments worth Tk 40,000 keeping the inmates confined to a room at gunpoint and decamped with the booties.

The miscreants posing themselves as members of Rab entered the house breaking the lock of collapsible gate. They also beat up Arun for refusing to hand over the keys of almirah.

Before leaving the house, the gang threatened to kill Arun if he files any case.

Daily Star staff mugged

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Armed muggers snatched Tk 5,100 from an employee of The Daily Star at Paribagh in Ramna in the city yesterday.

Two muggers waylaid Shyamol Biswas at Paribagh New Road when he was going to Elephant Road by a rickshaw to buy some computer accessories for the office at about 11:30am, and took away the money.

AL protests Saifur's remarks

UNB, Dhaka

Awami League Joint Secretary Obaidul Quader protested what he said was objectionable remarks of Finance Minister M Saifur Rahman in Sylhet that 'Awami League resorts to hartal on prices of green chilli.'

In a statement yesterday, he said that since its inception, the AL along with the people has been struggling to protect their rights.

Decrying the allegation of the finance minister, Quader said AL not only protested the price hike of green chilli, but also raised voice against the abnormal price spiral of essentials.

He said the AL rule in its three terms since the period of erstwhile Pakistan was much better than any other party in power.

He urged the finance minister to "shun the habit of saying illogical things and instead work for the wellbeing of the people."
