DU admission procedure revised in face of agitation

BSS, Dhaka

Dhaka University yesterday revised its admission procedure in the face of agitation launched by different student organisations on the campus.

As per the revised decision, the distribution of forms for admission to first year honours courses in 2004-05 session will now begin on December 21 and continue till January 2.

The admission tests will now begin on January 14.

The decision was taken at an emergency meeting of the admission committee yesterday, with Vice Chancellor Prof. SMA Faiz in the chair.

The admission test of 'GA' unit will be held on January 14, 'KA' unit test on February 4, 'Gha' unit test on February 11 and 'Kha' unit test on February 18.

The authorities dissolved the 'Uma' unit which was designed for the students seeking admission to the law faculty and asked the applicants to sit for the test under 'Kha' unit.

The admission forms will be available at Janata Bank, Agrani Bank and Sonali Bank branches on the campus.

Contractor shot

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Rivals allegedly shot at a contractor and former leader of Jatiyatabadi Chhatra Dal (JCD), Dhaka Mahanagar unit, at Hatirpool yesterday.

Struck by three bullets in the abdomen and legs, Saifullah Suman, 30, a student at the German Institute of Modern Language at Dhaka University, was undergoing treatment at Dhaka Medical College Hospital (DMCH) yesterday evening.

The victim said contractor SA Manir called him on his mobile phone at 3:30pm and asked him to his office in Western Star at Hatirpool.

"Mentioning of my getting a construction work at BKSP, he demanded Tk 1 lakh from me as toll," Suman told The Daily Star. "As I refused, he went out and four youths including two local criminals -- Rafi and Ismail -- entered the room and shot me," he said.
