UNB, Dhaka

UK Minister of State for Foreign and Commonwealth Office Douglas Alexander MP called on Foreign Minister M. Morshed Khan at his office yesterday and discussed matters of bilateral interest.

They reviewed developments at regional and international level and expressed determination to further strengthen the traditionally excellent relations between Bangladesh and the United Kingdom, says a press release.

Douglas Alexander arrived in Dhaka yesterday morning on a day's official visit.

British High Commissioner to Bangladesh Anwar Choudhury was present.

Third bridge on river Karnaphuli demanded

STAFF CORRESPONDENT, Ctg

Chattogram Nagorik Adhikar Andolan (Chittagong Citizens' Rights Movement) formed a human chain here yesterday demanding immediate construction of the 3rd bridge on the river Karnaphuli.

Later, the speakers at a rally demanded of the government to take a specific decision on the construction of the Karnaphuli 3rd Bridge at the next cabinet meeting.

They highlighted the plights of people travelling to and from south Chittagong, Cox's Bazar and Bandarban and said that absence of the bridge was hampering economic and industrial development on the other bank as well.

People from every strata of life joined the human chain.

Rights bodies demand arrest, trial of rapist policemen

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

A number of rights organisations at a press conference yesterday demanded the gang rape of a housewife in a Chuadanga police camp Saturday night and demanded immediate arrest and trial of the culprits.

Bangladesh Legal Aid and Services Trust (BLAST), Ain o Shalish Kendra (ASK), Bangladesh Mahila Parishad (BMP), Karmojibi Nari, and eight other rights bodies said they would submit a memorandum of demands to the inspector general of police today and send a five-member fact finding mission to Chuadanga.

Farida Yeasmin of the BLAST in the key briefing said rape is an offence that demands immediate arrest without any notice. But, in this case, the accused policemen have only been closed or suspended.

The speakers also alleged a vested quarter is trying to cover up the vile crime and destroy its evidence, and said the policemen involved in the outrage should be tried immediately under the Women and Children Repression Prevention Act.

BMP General Secretary Ayesha Khanam said, while the ruling party leaders repeatedly claim an improved law and order, the law enforcers make it clear there is no security for people, especially for women, in the country.

"The situation is so bleak that within a few days after the observance of International Human Rights Day and the Fortnight to Resist Violence against Women, law enforcers here gang rape a woman," she lamented. Quoting a BLAST report Ayesha said in January-June 2004 police sexually abused 35 women.

Bangladesh Jatiya Samik Jote President Shirin Akhtar, Karmojibi Nari co-ordinator Arifa Akhtar, Rowshan Jahan Parvin of ASK, Upama Dasgupta of Samata and Hasina Akhtar of Nijera Kori were also present.

1,614 more held

UNB, Dhaka

Police arrested 1,614 people on various charges from different parts of the country in the last 24 hours till 6:00am yesterday.

During the period, the law enforcers recovered 23 firearms, 17 other weapons, 28 bullets and four cocktails and filed six cases against 10 people under Arms Act, says a police headquarters press release.
