

Passion for Sports

At Dhaka University, he soon excelled in sports events. In 1951 he broke a new record in pole vault but while pole vault was his expertise, he also made his mark in the categories of running, high jump, hop, step and jump in which he became champion in the first year of his university life.

Alim's university days brought him innumerable trophies.

