KILLING OF MANIK SAHA Reinvestigation demanded

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Speakers at a seminar yesterday called for reinvestigation into the killing of journalist Manik Saha, saying that the charge sheet in the case has been framed loosely and is inconsistent with the nature of the incident.

The charge sheet has not been prepared properly and a reinvestigation is needed into the grisly murder.

said former additional inspector general of police Abdur Rahim Khan.

A group of newsmen organised the seminar on 'Killing of Manik Saha and risk of journalism in south-western region' at the Dhaka Reporters Unity office to mark the first death anniversary of the noted journalist who was killed in a bomb explosion in Khulna.

BFUJ Secretary General Monzurul Ahsan Bulbul, Mozammel Hossain Monju, CPB General Secretary Mujahidul Islam Selim and Duta President Prof AAMS Arefin Siddique also spoke while Nikhil Bhadra read out an article on Saha's life and works.

Our Staff Correspondent in Khulna adds: Khulna Press Club marked the day with various programmes.

The press club leaders placed wreaths at the spot where he was killed and observed one minute's silence. A protest rally was also held on the club premises.

Later, they submitted a memorandum to the deputy commissioner demanding fair trial of the murder case.
