Eto'o bails Barca out

Football

REUTERS, Madrid

Barcelona striker Samuel Eto'o atoned for missing an early penalty by grabbing a late winner to give his side an agonising 1-0 win over 10-man Real Sociedad at the Nou Camp on Sunday.

The Cameroon international fired in a difficult header after Mexican midfielder Rafael Marquez had flicked on a corner nine minutes from time, but if it had not been for some fantastic goalkeeping from Victor Valdes the Catalans would not have hung on for the win.

Real Madrid also had to dig deep to come from a goal down to win 3-1 at home to 10-man Real Zaragoza in Sunday's late match. The results meant that Barcelona preserved their seven-point lead over Real in the standings at the half-way point in the season.

Barca have 45 points from 19 games, Real have 38 and Valencia, who were held to a 0-0 draw at Osasuna, are two behind on 36.

Valencia gave a subdued performance in a match overshadowed by the news of the sudden death of the young daughter of Valencia defender Marco Caneira shortly before the kickoff.

Zaragoza stunned the home fans at the Bernabeu when striker David Villa put them ahead with a brilliant virtuoso goal midway through the first half.

But Real equalised three minutes before the break when Raul scooped the ball over the keeper after Zinedine Zidane and Ronaldo had combined to slice open the Zaragoza defence.

Zaragoza suffered a double setback at the start of the second half, losing centre-back Alvaro after he picked up a needless second booking for a foul on the halfway line and then going 2-1 down when Ronaldo headed in at the far post after a Luis Figo shot fell into his path. It was the Brazilian superstar's 11th goal in the campaign.

The visitors were left seething, however, because Figo had appeared to receive the ball in an offside position and they were then denied a penalty after defender Michel Salgado had hauled Villa down in the area.

But they had nothing to complain when substitute Michael Owen completed the Real victory with a fine strike five minutes from time, the England striker threading a shot between two defenders, out of reach of the keeper and inside the far post.

Barcelona, who suffered only their second defeat of the season when they went down at Villarreal last week, were gifted a great chance to take the lead when they were awarded a dubious penalty in the fourth minute after midfielder Andres Iniesta went down in the area.

But Eto'o fired his spot kick against the post and the Catalans, who were missing influential Portugal midfielder Deco, grew increasingly frustrated as they were unable to break down the crowded Sociedad defence.

The Basque side sat back and defended for most of the first half but almost snatched the lead when striker Darko Kovacevic unleashed a viciously dipping shot from the edge of the area only to see it tipped over the bar by Valdes.

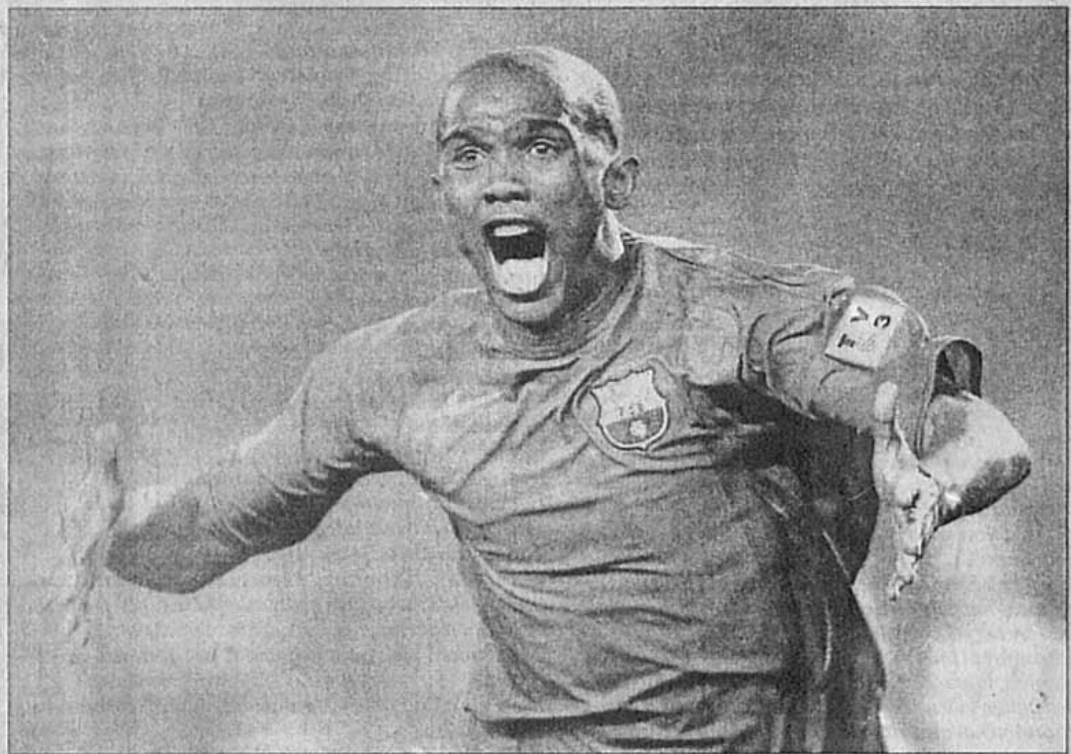

Sociedad's attacking options were further reduced when midfielder Xabi Prieto was sent off after picking up a second card for hauling back Silvinho just after the hour.

Barca laid siege to the Sociedad area but only managed to break the deadlock when Eto'o headed in after Xavi's corner in the 81st minute to take his tally for the season to 14.

Real want Robinho by week's end

INTERNET SOURCE

Real Madrid are hoping to wrap up the signing of Santos star Robinho this week.

The Brazilian international's agents were in talks with Real powerbrokers over the weekend ahead of a deal being agreed possibly inside the next 48 hours.

Real president Florentino Perez, vice-president Emilio Butragueno and general manager Arrigo Sacchi met with Robinho's agent, Juan Figuer and his son Marcel, on Saturday to discuss details over the youngster's transfer.

Marcel Figuer admitted yesterday: "The subject of Robinho is surely going to be settled within the next three days."

But he added: "We're not here in Madrid to discuss Robinho. We're here to accompany Pele."

Tiger Cup Singapore's

Singapore beat Indonesia 2-1 on Sunday to win the Tiger Cup 5-2 on aggregate and crown themselves kings of south east Asia for the second time.

The 1998 champions, who beat Indonesia 3-1 in the first leg last week in Jakarta, effectively sewed up the title six minutes into the match when Indra Shahdan's fine strike gave the hosts a comfortable three-goal aggregate lead.

Ferguson gets Everton a point

Football

REUTERS, London

Duncan Ferguson stepped off the bench to spark an Everton revival as they claimed a 1-1 draw at Middlesbrough in the Premier League on Sunday.

The rugged former Scotland striker entered the fray after 74 minutes with his side trailing 1-0 to their rivals for a Champions League spot, and within two minutes set up Tim Cahill's equaliser with a headed pass.

Minutes later he was at the centre of an ugly goalmouth flare-up after he caught Mark Schwarzer on the head after lunging for the ball following a fumble by the 'Boro keeper.

Fourth-placed Everton, who sold midfielder Thomas Gravesen to Real Madrid in the week, thoroughly deserved their point after they had fallen behind to a superb Boudewijn Zenden finish from an acute angle after 26 minutes.

James Beattie, still to score for Everton since joining from Southampton, almost equalised when he dribbled a shot against the base of the post after another mistake by Schwarzer.

Everton have 44 points, 14 behind runaway leaders Chelsea who extended their advantage to 10 points on Saturday with a 2-0 victory at Tottenham Hotspur while second-placed Arsenal slipped to a 1-0 defeat at Bolton Wanderers.

Boro remain in sixth place on 36 points, one behind Liverpool who were beaten 1-0 by Manchester United on Saturday.

In Sunday's late kickoff bottom club West Bromwich Albion suffered a shattering 1-0 defeat at Fulham, for whom Papa Bouba Diop headed a stoppage time winner.

West Brom, who have not won a league match since former England captain Bryan Robson took charge of his old club in November, showed plenty of spirit but were punished severely when Diop stole in unmarked to head in Mark Pembroke's corner.

West Brom have a meagre 13 points from 23 games, five behind Crystal Palace who head a mini-group of four teams scrapping for survival in the basement.

Southampton and Norwich City, who also lost on Saturday, occupy the two other relegation places.

A sad day in Valencia

AFP, Madrid

Valencia defender Marco Caneira withdrew from his side's Primera Liga game at Osasuna after his young daughter died on Sunday.

Spanish media reported that his eight-month-old daughter was admitted to hospital in Valencia with respiratory problems and died soon after.

The player made an immediate return to Valencia in a private jet laid on by an Osasuna director.

Officials from Valencia discussed a possible postponement of the game, but decided to go ahead with the match after consulting with the referee.

The 25-year-old Portuguese defender joined Valencia on loan from Girondins Bordeaux during the close season.

FA bans mystery booter

Zola makes Milan happy

Football

AFP, Rome

Juventus saw their lead at the top of Serie A cut to two points after they were held to a 1-1 draw at Cagliari and closest rivals AC Milan beat Udinese 3-1.

Juve appeared to be heading for a precious win in Sicily until the 89th minute when former Chelsea star Gianfranco Zola scored with a rare header.

The diminutive 38-year-old striker leapt high above Juve defender Jonathan Zebina to meet Massimo Brambilla's right-wing cross and steered the ball in off the post with a flick of his forehead for his sixth league goal.

Juve took the lead 10 minutes into the second half when Brazilian midfielder Emerson headed Pavel Nedved's cross into the net off the underside of the crossbar.

Gianluigi Buffon pulled off two superb saves to deny Antonio Langella in the closing stages, but the Juve keeper could do nothing to keep out Zola's stunning last-gasp effort.

Juventus have 44 points from their 19 matches played, while reigning champions AC Milan have 42, eight more than third-placed Udinese. Cagliari's draw left them in eighth place on 26 points.

Zola insisted his team were worthy of a point having carved out numerous chances against Italy's pace-setters.

"We deserved a draw because we played without fear and exploited our full potential," he said.

"My goal was important because it secured a result that we fully merited."

Antonio Di Natale gave Udinese an early lead at the San Siro with a superb long-range strike before Andriy Shevchenko levelled the score with his 13th league goal of the season.

An own goal from Czech midfielder Marek Jankulovski gifted Milan the lead before Kaka's solo effort ensured three valuable points.

The result capped a memorable day for Paolo Maldini, who made his Serie A debut with AC Milan almost 20 years ago to the day and has been with the club ever since.

In his time there, Maldini, who is now the captain, has won seven league championships and four European Cup/Champions League titles.

Palermo climbed to fifth behind

Inter Milan after winning 3-1 at Lazio where Luca Toni netted a brace for the visiting Sicilians.

Palermo have 28 points, the same number as Sampdoria, who were held at home to Bologna.

Roma came from two goals down to draw 2-2 at Chievo where Vincenzo Montella scored twice for the visitors, taking his league tally to 16, the best in Serie A.

Former Italy international Roberto Donadoni got off to a winning start as the new coach of Livorno with the Tuscany side beating Messina 3-1.

Bottom club Atalanta were held to a 1-1 draw by fellow strugglers Siena, while Parma boosted their chances of surviving the drop with a last-gasp 2-1 victory at home to Lecce.

Udinese, who arrived in Milan having lost just once in their previous 13 matches, took the lead in the ninth minute.

The Italy international found space on the edge of the box and fired a rising right-footed shot that flew past Milan keeper Nelson Dida.

The home side drew level in the 31st minute.

Kaka went on a surging run before drilling a low ball into the box intended for Hernan Crespo.

The Argentine striker failed to connect with an outstretched boot, but Shevchenko appeared at the back post to side-foot the ball home.

The home side went ahead eight minutes after half-time thanks to a huge slick of luck.

Seedorf crossed from the right and Jankulovski tried to head the ball away for a corner but only succeeded in diverting it past his own keeper, Morgan De Sanctis.

Kaka rounded off the scoring a minute from the end, coolly slotting home after a mazy dribble into the box.

On Saturday, Inter Milan were held to a goalless draw at Reggina, their 13th draw of the season, while Fiorentina drew 1-1 at Brescia.

FA CUP PREVIEW

Exeter miracle part two?

Football

REUTERS, London

Manchester United taste the extremes of English football this week when, four days after beating Liverpool at Anfield, they travel to Devon for their FA Cup third round replay with minor league Exeter City.

United got the ideal preparation by beating Liverpool 1-0 while Exeter took a leaf out of Alex Ferguson's Cup tactics book by resting several players as they also stepped down a level in a 2-2 FA Trophy draw at Billericay.

"It is a little different playing here in front of 1,400 compared with 67,000 at Old Trafford," said Exeter manager Alex Inglethorpe, whose side held United to a shock goalless draw on January 8 and scored twice in the last five minutes against the Essex part-timers.

Only five of the team who held United started against Billericay but the Conference side will be back to full strength on Wednesday when the Devon town will come to a halt for the biggest day in the club's 101-year history.

Ferguson has vowed to put out a stronger side than the youth and reserve combination who produced what he described as United's worst Cup performance in his 18 years at the club.

A home tie against Middlesbrough awaits the winners, but Exeter will come out smiling whatever happens on Wednesday as the overall income from the two games will wipe out their 750,000 pounds ($1.40 million) debt.

Exeter have refused to raise ticket prices for the match, keeping them at Conference levels despite knowing they could sell out their 10,000-capacity St James Park several times over.

Instead they prefer to further strengthen the bond with the local community that saved the club from extinction after they went out of the league two years ago with debts of five million pounds.

"We are in a position where we can't lose," said Inglethorpe, who surely can not believe what dramas he has overseen in the four months since he took over after leaving his job as youth team coach at Orient.

"If we get beaten, the club will come out of it in a far healthier position. Our season doesn't end on Wednesday. All the attention that we've been attracting will go. It will drift on to someone else."

"If Wednesday was the replay against Billericay, we would prepare exactly the way we will for Manchester United. If our preparation was suddenly changed it would tell us that something was wrong with the way we prepare 38 weeks of the year."

Liverpool, who lost after falling at home to United for the third successive season, get the chance to take out their frustration on Burnley on Tuesday when their postponed third-round game is re-scheduled.

However, coach Rafael Benitez, in his first taste of the FA Cup, is likely to stick with his original plan of playing several youth team hopefuls against these second division team.

Two other Premier League sides have home replays against first division clubs on Wednesday -- Blackburn Rovers against Cardiff and Fulham against Watford -- both ties finishing 1-1 in the original games.

South African star arrested

AFP, Johannesburg

Former South Africa World Cup hero Philemon Masinga was arrested at the weekend for allegedly driving under the influence of alcohol.

Reports said police detained Masinga in Klerksdorp, 130km west of here, and that he would face charges of drunken and reckless driving and of obstructing officers and resisting arrest.

He was later released on bail and is expected to appear in court Monday.

A capacity 80,000 crowd saw Masinga score a memorable winner against Congo in Johannesburg eight years ago to steer South Africa to the World Cup for the first time.

Masinga was among the first South Africans to move abroad when a racism-induced ban on South Africa was lifted in 1992 by world football governing body FIFA.

He played for Leeds United in England and Bari in Italy.
