2 rapists held
 UNB, Keraniganj

Two young boys were held for raping a minor girl at west Barishur yesterday.

Locals said Suruj Mia, 18, and Giasuddin, 13, beguiled an eight-year old girl and took her to nearby mustard field. There they deflowered her at about 11:00am.

On her shrill cries, farmers around rushed and caught Suruj and Gias and handed them over to police after a good thrashing.

The victim was admitted to a clinic for treatment.

Autocratic force still reigns

Speakers tell Asad Day discussion

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Shaheed Asad Day was observed yesterday.

On this day in 1969, Asaduzzaman, a student of Dhaka University, was killed when police opened fire on a procession brought out for the realisation of 11-point demand of the Students Action Committee.

Different organisations took elaborate programmes to observe the day. These included placing of wreaths and discussions.

Shaheed Asad Parishad placed wreaths at his memorial plaque in front of the Dhaka Medical College and Hospital and his grave at Shibpur in Narsingdi.

Bangladesh Workers Party organised a discussion at its central office in the city to mark the occasion.

Speakers at the discussion said the supreme sacrifices of Asad, Motiur and others compelled the Pakistani autocratic forces to quit the power, but a new autocratic force still reigns the country.

This fascist regime is pushing the country and its democracy towards a dark future.

Rupsha Bridge named Khan Jahan Ali Bridge

UNB, Dhaka

The under-construction Rupsha Bridge in Khulna has been named 'Khan Jahan Ali Bridge' in honour of the famous Muslim saint.

A government handout yesterday said another bridge, which is being constructed over river Gorai in Kushtia, has been named 'Sayed Masud Rumi Bridge'.

It has been dedicated to the memory of the late Rumi, who was a Member of Parliament, "in recognition of his contributions to public welfare and development of education in the district", the official announcement said.

Obituary

UNB, Dhaka

Dr Major (Retd) M M Rahman, former director of World Health Organisation (Who) and paternal uncle of late President Ziaur Rahman, died of old age complications at his Dhanmondi residence on Wednesday at the age of 88.

He is survived by two sons - M Mahmoodur Rahman, managing director of Biman Bangladesh Airlines, and M Mahbubur Rahman, a banker - and a host of relatives and admirers to mourn his death.

He was buried at the Army Graveyard, Dhaka.

Dr Rahman began his career in the then British-India Army Medical Corps in 1941 and retired from Bangladesh Army in 1973. He made significant contribution in the eradication of Malaria from South Asia while working with the Who as its director, Malaria Eradication-South Asia.

His qulhwani will be held at House No. 30, Road No. 14/A, Dhanmondi R/A after Asr prayers on Sunday, says a Biman press release.
