

A Triumph Against the Odds

The long awaited moment finally came. The clock read 12:56pm. The calendar read Monday, 10th of January, 2005. Finally, Bangladesh registered their first ever win in test cricket. It was 10th of November, 2000 when Bangladesh, the youngest among the 10 test playing countries, played their first test match against the neighbouring India. Four long years and two months went by before Bangladesh could grab the long eluding victory on January 10 at MA Aziz Stadium in Chittagong. The entire country burst into celebration the cricket crazy Bangladeshis finally got something to rejoice about.

Cover Photo: AFP
Cover Design: Manan Murshed

● Letters	2
● Voicebox	4
● Chintito	5
● Newsnotes	6
● Slice of Life	14
To Act or Not to Act That is The Question
● Special Feature	16
When Birds Mean Business
● International	19
Sore Winners in Ramallah
● Development	20
Making Medicinal Plants Profitable
● Exhibition	21
Runway and Beyond
● Musings	22
Stardust in my Eyes
● Travel	24
Travels in Malawi Safari Nights
● Perceptions	26
Daishinsai
● Trends	28
The Magic of Music
● Time Out	29
'Marshal' by name
● Fitness	30
King of Exercises: Walking
● Endeavour	32
Teenage Photographers Turn Professional
● Health	34
● Education	36
● Sci-tech	38
● Trivia	40
● Dhaka Diary	41
● Jokes	42
● Books	43
● New Flicks	46
● Write to Mita	47
● Globetrotter	48