

GRAFT CASE AGAINST TARIQUE RAHMAN Decision on charge-framing February 10

COURT CORRESPONDENT

A Dhaka court yesterday re-fixed February 10 for decision on charge-framing against Tarique Rahman, son of late president Ziaur Rahman and a director of Dandy Dyeing Limited, and four others in a graft case.

Judge Rezaul Karim Khan of the Special Court for Dhaka Division did not pass any order on the issue as Tarique Rahman and others were not present in the court due to hartal.

The defence lawyers submitted a time petition saying that the accused could not appear before the court due to hartal. So they prayed for adjournment of the passing order.

Four other accused are Dandy Dyeing Managing Director Maj (retd) Syed Iskander Mirza, MP, Director Glausuddin Al Mamun, former managing director of Sonali Bank M Ehsanul Haq and Abdul Khaleq Pathan.

Earlier, the defence lawyers submitted a discharge petition and made submission on it saying that charges mentioned in the first information report (FIR) are absolutely false, and the case was filed to harass and humiliate the accused, the defence lawyers told the court.

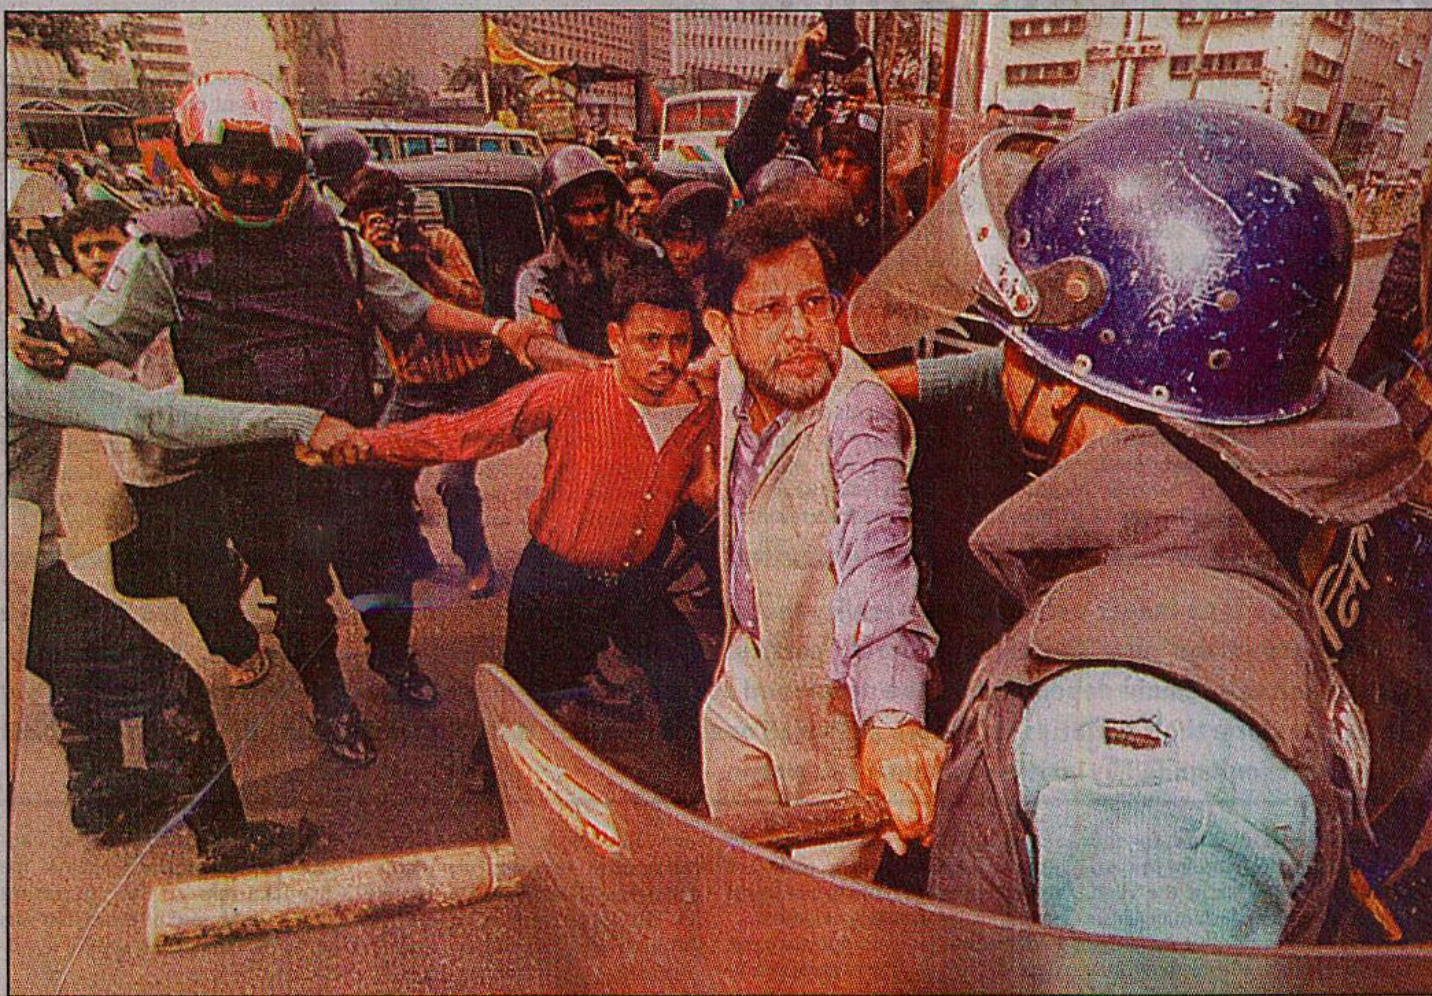

They prayed for discharging the accused from the charges.

Opposing the petition, the prosecution prayed for framing charges against them on the grounds that the charges were primarily proved.

Now defunct the Bureau of Anti-Corruption (Bac) filed a case with the Motijheel Police Station accusing Tarique Rahman and four others on September 14, 1996 and the investigation officer pressed charges against them on May 22, 1997.

In the name of M/s Dandy Dyeing Ltd., the accused sought loans of Tk 15.30 crore for setting up a textile dyeing factory on February 15, 1993. But the equity was fixed in collusion with the bank authorities at only Tk 1 crore, instead of Tk 5.60 crore, the amount proportionate to the loan, the FIR read.

Moreover, the value of the mortgaged land was shown to be worth Tk 18 lakh, whereas the real value was only Tk 1 lakh and 20 thousand.

Awami League lawmaker Asaduzzaman Noor comes to the rescue of a party activist while police batoncharge him at Motijheel during hartal hours yesterday.
