She won the title with a timing of 11.90 seconds followed by Fouzia Huda Jui of BKSP (12.0 seconds) and Sumita Rani of BJMC (12.70). "My original event for last nine years was the defending 400 metres but I wanted to take part in the 100metre to test my talent," said the elated BJMC athlete.

The victory capped a brilliant showing for Beauty as she bagged highest five gold medals. Earlier she won the 200m, 400m and was part of the 4x100m and 4x400m relay Abdullah added the 100m gold to his 200m and 4x100m relay. Ārmy's long distance runner Anisur Rahman also claimed three golds in 800m, 1500m and 3000 metres steeplechase.

The three-day competition, which saw only new record, finished with Bangladesh Army reigning supreme with a haul of 17 golds, 10 silvers and nine bronzes. BJMC followed with 14 gold, 15 silver and three bronze medals, while third place went to Bangladesh Navy who collected three golds, one silver and two bronzes.

The only new national record went to Army's Azharul Islam who broke discus mark with a throw of 44.04m on Friday. It bettered the 44.00metre set by Saidur Rahman way back in 1981

"I really appreciate Razzaq and Akmal," said Inzamam. "They really were mentally strong "It was not easy for Kamran. There was a lot of pressure and he showed tremendous character.

"If the boys play like this we have a good chance to win this series.

Inzamam said he did not nurse much hopes of saving the Test going into the final day after Pakistan conceded a 204-run first innings lead and were 257 for six overnight.

"The position from where we came to draw this match, the morale of our players will be really high.

Indian captain Souray Ganguly defended his factics of playing three seamers and Anil Kumble as the only spinner.

"We came out today having to take just four wickets," he said. "We thought we could bowl one good ball and the rest would fall at the bottom.

"Once we decided to bowl first, we had to go in with three fast bowlers." Ganguly said India had not taken victory for granted as the Mohali pitch

The Asian Football Confederation (AFC) says it is too early to make a decision on Australia's request to join the AFC.

Australia have asked world soccer's governing body FIFA for permission to leave the Oceania Football Confederation (OFC) and join the AFC in order to make World Cup qualification easier

The AFC acknowledged talks with the Football Federation of Australia (FFA) had taken place but said no formal decision was made.

"The president of the AFC; Mohamed Bin Hammam, wishes to point out that no final decision has been taken at any level," the AFC said in a statement on Saturday.

AFC officials are set to discuss in detail Australia's request for entry into the Asian confederation after 2006 at their executive committee meeting on March 23.

Swedish referee Anders Frisk announced his retirement on Saturday following death threats from Chelsea supporters after their Champions League match against Barcelona at the Nou Camp last

Chelsea went on to win the last 16 clash with a 4-2 home victory after their 2-1 defeat in Spain on February 23 when Chelsea fans threatened to kill him in messages by telephone, e-mail and the post. "The game is just not worth all that," 42-year-old Frisk said on the Swedish football federation website. "The safety of my family is more important than anything." He told the Aftonbladet newspaper: "I received threats by telephone, e-mail and the post. I have a big family and I am very worried.

Anything could happen." Frisk, one of the top-rated referees in the world, had given Chelsea striker Didier Drogba a second vellow card in the 56th minute.

effectively sending him off, while Barcelona were 1-0 down.

The Swede decided he raised his foot too high in a challenge on Barcelona keeper Victor Valdes early in the second-half though Drogba later claimed he had not touched the player.

ANDERS FRISK

Drogba's dismissal aroused the anger of Chelsea fans and of manager Jose Mourinho who claimed Barcelona coach Frank Rijkaard had entered Frisk's changing room during the break.

"I have so much experience that everyone should understand that would never let a coach enter my changing room during a match, Frisk added.

Frisk said he did not understand how a correctly given second yellow card and a friendly handshake with the home coach could bring about

In September last year, Frisk had also been in the middle of an incident during the Champions League match between AS Roma and Dvnamo Kiev. Frisk abandoned the match while the Ukrainian club were leading 1-0 after being hit by a projectile thrown from the stands during the half-time break at the Olympic stadium in Rome.

Roma were later handed a 3-0 defeat by European football's governing body UEFA and ordered to play two home matches behind Frisk has refereed 132 interna-
