

TENSED, YET READY TO FACE TOMORROW

THE usual hubbub of traffic was drowned by the din of the parents who waited anxiously outside the examining centres. But examinees cautiously go over the question papers of the Secondary School Certificate exams which began last Thursday. The candidates vie for positions and stars in various subjects and disciplines as this is the first step in a line of a series of public examinations that will shape their future.

Photo: SHAWKAT JAMIL

