Muggers stab one to death

STAFF CORRESPONDENT, Ctg

Muggers stabbed one person to death at Patenga sea beach in the city on Friday night.

He was identified as Kazi Shafiqul Islam alias Mithu, 30, a chemist of Bay-Fishing Corporation.

Mithu and his newly married wife were returning home from the sea beach when they fell victim to the attack at around 8:00pm, police and witnesses said.

Some unidentified miscreants stopped the newly wedded couple at Jhauban, several hundred yards off the shore, and snatched their belongings.

As Mithu tried to resist the muggers, he was stabbed by them critically.

Mithu was rushed to Chittagong Medical College Hospital where the doctors declared him dead.

Son of Kazi Bashir Uddin, a resident of 29, Jamal Khan Road, Mithu got married on February 12 this year. The victim's brother Kazi Nurul Islam filed a case with the Patenga Police Station in this connection.

None was arrested as of filing this report yesterday afternoon.

UNCLAIMED DIVIDEND

It has been observed from our records that in spite of disbursement of dividend warrants by post/courier service to all the shareholders every year, some of the dividend warrants were returned to the company undelivered as the addressees were not found in the recorded addresses. This has resulted in accumulation of some unclaimed dividend warrants in the share department of the company.

In the circumstances it is requested that the concerned shareholders may please collect the unclaimed dividend warrants from the share department of the company at 107 Motijheel C/A (8th Floor), Dhaka-1000, on any working day as soon as possible.

Teachers urged to increase efficiency

BSS, Dhaka

Education Minister Dr M Osman Farruk yesterday called upon the teachers to rather take their tasks as a 'noble effort' than just a profession for the welfare of the nation.

Describing teachers' community as 'architect' of the future generation, the minister said efficiency of the teachers have to be increased to develop human resources and prepare younger generation for the 21st century.

He was addressing as chief guest the inaugural function of foundation-training course for 77th batch of BCS Education and Technical cadre service at National Academy for Education Management in the city.

Dr Osman Farruk said we have to find out ways to become economically self-reliant through procurement of internal resources and ensuring their proper utilisation. He also underscored the need for training and maintaining integrity for better management of resources.

NAEM Director General Prof M Khalilur Rahman presided. Course advisor Prof Sayeed Ahmad and course conductor M Abul Kashem Mian also spoke.

Union leaders attack top officials of jute mills in Ctg

STAFF CORRESPONDENT, Ctg

Union leaders and activists of jute mills in Sitakunda attacked its officials yesterday morning over the termination of a worker aligned to the ruling party.

Abdul Quader, general manager of Kashem Jute Mills, Azim Uz Zaman, production officer, Afzal Hossain, a senior officer, and two others were injured during the attack at around 7.00am.

Sources said a group of agitated workers led by BNP leader Jalal Hossain went straight to the office of the general manager and asked for an explanation over the recent termination of the worker.

But the answer of Abdul Quader made them angry and prompted them to launch the attack, the sources added.

Acting on information, police rushed to the spot and sent the injured to local health complex.

No case was filed as of yesterday afternoon.
