

BDR intensifies patrol to foil push-in by BSF

BSS, Dinajpur

Bangladesh Rifles (BDR) has intensified patrol at different points of the frontier following push-in bids by the Border Security Forces (BSF) of India on Friday.

BDR sources said that the BDR jawans always keep vigil to foil any provocative act in the bordering areas.

When asked they, however, said, "The situation is not that tense to maintain red alert in the areas."

BDR officials said that the situation in the bordering areas was now under control.

ALLEGATIONS OF CORRUPTION KU pro-VC withdrawn

STAFF CORRESPONDENT, Khulna

Khulna University Pro-Vice Chancellor Professor Dr Syed Jabid Hossain has been withdrawn.

An official letter was sent to the Khulna University in this regard yesterday. He has been asked to join his previous job in the Department of Accounting of Rajshahi University.

Dr Jabid hailing from Rampal upazila of Bagerhat district joined the Khulna University as pro-VC on February 3, 2002.

KU sources said that he was withdrawn as he was facing allegations of corruption, nepotism and malpractices. Inquiry against him is going on, the sources added.

I have been the victim of conspiracy hatched up by a section of teachers and officials of the university, Dr Jabid said refuting all allegations against him.

Dr Jabid allegedly provided jobs to many people of his district taking bribes as chairman of the KU recruitment committee.
