India crushed by 168 runs at Bangalore

AFP, Bangalore

Leg-spinner Shahid Afridi triggered a sensational Indian collapse with three top wickets to mas-termind Pakistan's 168-run victory in the third and final Test here on Monday.

Pakistan drew the series 1-1 after India, chasing a 383-run target, were shot out for 214 just before close of play on the last day.

The hosts lost their last nine wickets for a meagre 106 on a Chinnaswamy Stadium wicket which was still good for batting.

The opening Test was drawn at Mohali, while India won the second Test in Kolkata by 195 runs.

Leg-spinner Danish Kaneria completed Pakistan's dream victory when he trapped Laxmipathy Balaji leg-before with just 6.1 overs remaining.

The 25-year-old Afridi, in the team only as a third spinner after Kaneria and Arshad Khan, did the trick by catching the ultra-defensive Indian batsmen on the wrong foot.

Even Sachin Tendulkar, who became India's leading scorer after surpassing Sunil Gavaskar's record of 10,122 runs, looked a pale shadow of his former attacking self. He made 16 off 98 balls after surviving a chance on nine.

The Indian tail-enders, led by gutsy Anil Kumble (37 not out), offered stiff resistance by lasting as many as 20 overs to delay the inevitable.

Afridi never allowed the Indian batsmen to settle down with his fastish leg-breaks, removing Tendulkar, Venkatsai Laxman and out-of-form captain Sourav Ganguly to finish with 3-13 off 17 overs.

Off-spinner Arshad, playing his first Test in five years, finished with 2-21.

The famed Indian middle order failed to cope with the pressure as Pakistan grabbed four wickets in the second session to reduce the hosts to 135-5 after getting just one in the morning.

India's hopes of chasing the target virtually ended after the run out of Virender Sehwag (38), capable of tearing apart any attack with his amazing stroke-play.

He had been looking dangerous during his stay at the wicket, smashing seamer Abdul Razzaq for three consecutive fours and then lofting Kaneria for two boundaries.

But once Sehwag was run out, failing to beat a Razzaq direct-throw to the non-striker's end following a mix-up with Gautam Gambhir (52), India went on the defensive.

The hosts, who resumed at 25 for no loss, scored 77 in the first session and 38 in the second.

Even the draw seemed a remote possibility when India lost four wickets in the space of 27 runs in the second session, with Afridi taking two and Arshad and paceman Mohammad Sami one apiece.

Pakistan came back into the match after lunch when they removed Gambhir and Rahul Dravid in the space of 10 runs to reduce the hosts to 118-3.

Venkatsai Laxman also did not survive long, trapped leg-before by Afridi.

Afridi struck again when he bowled Ganguly (two) with a big leg-break, the batsman standing at the crease in disbelief before leaving for the pavilion.

Gambhir played a key role in an 87-run stand for the opening wicket with Sehwag (38) before being trapped leg-before by Sami.

He hit seven fours in his second Test half-century, but not before getting the benefit of the doubt from Australian umpire Simon Taufel following an appeal for caught behind off seamer Razzaq early in the day.

Dravid also did not last long, caught pad-bat by Younis at silly-point in Arshad's first over.

Pakistan captain Inzamamul Haq on Monday was suspended for one Test and fined 30 per cent of his match-fee for contesting an umpiring decision during the third and final Test against India here.

'Defensive India helped us' Captaincy doesn't worry Ganguly

AFP, Bangalore

A jubilant Pakistan captain Inzamamul Haq said Monday his team cashed in on India's defensive batting to level the series with a 168-run victory in the third and final Test here.

"I was surprised by their defensive strategy. India went on the defensive after lunch which allowed us to attack and force a win," said Inzamam.

"The situation at lunch was difficult because we had got only one wicket. We realised they were going for a draw and our last resort was to attack which we did," Inzamam said, referring to India's lunch score of 102-1.

India batted defensively in a bid to save the game, with star batsman Sachin Tendulkar taking 98 balls for his 16. Even Rahul Dravid and Venkatsai Laxman batted slowly.

"I could not have asked for a better

100th Test. I scored a hundred and then we won the match to level the series," said Inzamam, who scored 184 on his 100th Test appearance.

"It was a great team effort. Shahid Afridi, Danish Kaneria, Younis Khan did their best, but on the whole it was a combined effort," said Inzamam.

Leg-spinner Afridi grabbed three key wickets to plot India's dramatic collapse, which saw the hosts lose their last nine wickets for 106 runs.

Pakistan bagged four wickets in the second session and five in the last to complete a dream victory.

"Drawing the series is a very big achievement for this young team," said Inzamam. His side has lost seven of their last 12 Tests.

"It's very tough to come from behind to level the series against the home team and this win will help this team in future."

Indian captain Sourav Ganguly said he did not believe his team wanted to play for a draw.

"We had decided to play normal cricket. There were no conscious efforts to get defensive," Ganguly said, adding that the run out of hard-hitting opener Virender Sehwag turned out to be crucial.

"Sehwag's run-out pushed us back. Then we lost four wickets in the second session which put us under pressure," said Ganguly.

Sehwag, who hammered 201 in the first innings, was run out for 38 following a mix-up with partner Gautam Gambhir early in the day.

Ganguly said the 1-1 result was disappointing.

"It's disappointing to end the series this way after being 1-0 up on home grounds," said Ganguly who had a bad series, scoring just 48 in three Tests.

"I am not worried about the captaincy," he said when asked whether there was any threat to his leadership.

"It's for the selectors to decide because I have captained India in 40-odd Tests and have nothing to prove to anyone," said Ganguly.

"It's disappointing to be the captain and not scoring. But I have been in this situation before and have come back."

Tendulkar on top

Sachin Tendulkar overtook former captain Sunil Gavaskar as India's highest run-scorer in the third and final Test against Pakistan on Monday.

He reached the milestone by steering Mohammad Sami for a single to third man to get to 10,123 runs in his 123rd Test.

The 31-year-old was out in the final session for 16, caught by Asim Kamal at forward short-leg off occasional leg-spinner Shahid

Rain hampers Dhaka

Rajshahi, Barisal prosper

SPORTS REPORTER

After a high-scoring sixth round that saw nine centuries the seventh round of the Ispahani Sixth National Cricket League began at a less hectic pace yesterday.

Runaway leaders Dhaka, after three straight wins in the first-class competition, saw their march spoilt by rain at the Sylhet Stadium.

Inclement weather could allow only 27 overs of play with the hosts finishing at 55-2.

But there was no rain-inter-vention at Chittagong or Barisal.

Rajshahi continued their dominance at the Chittagong Divisional Stadium when the visitors, fresh after their one-day success, bowled Chittagong out for 206 with the pace trio of Sumon Shaha, Shahajada and Alamgir Kabir sharing nine wickets.

Rajshahi were 81-2 at stumps. Although Chittagong were under pressure at home, Barisal prospered in their backyard against Khulna.

The home side were 220-5 at stumps thanks to an unbeaten 80 by Proshenjit Bose.

RAJSHAHI-CHITTAGONG

Chittagong made a disastrous start after opting to bat first when they soon slumped to 62-6 before number eight batsman Sabbir Khan (48) joined national discard Faisal Hossain (32) to repair the damage adding 43 runs for the seventh wicket.

Besides, Ahsanullah Hasan made 38 and Waskurni Palash (20 not out) helped to guide the Chittagonians to respectability. Sumon claimed four for 55 while Shahajada picked up 3-42 and Alamgir Kabir took two wickets for 21 runs.

Speedster Palash then gave Chittagong a double breakthrough dismissing Rajshahi openers Zohirul Islam for 32 and Raqibul

INDEPENDENCE DAY GOLD CUP

Turnout on BFF's mind

SPORTS REPORTER

The Bangladesh Football Federation (BFF) has completed all preparations to stage tomorrow's Independence Gold Cup football final between Brothers Union and Muktiyoddha Sangsad at the Bangabandhu National Stadium but the officials were worried about the turnout after two crowd-pulling teams' exit from the competition.

The absence of Abahani and Mohammedan, both knocked out of the semifinals, is certainly going to affect the turnout of spectators, which was impressive at the start of the tournament.

A high official of the BFF said yesterday that they were more concerned because Prime Minister Khaleda Zia is expected to grace the final.

"It would be unfortunate if the galleries are empty in presence of the Prime Minister. I hope the two teams would be able to inspire their supporters to come to the final although it is hard to believe that it will be a full house without Abahani or Mohammedan," the official told seeking anonymity.

Unlike the group phases, the final will be played in the middle of the huge ground. With the country's premier venue under renovation, only the western gallery will be open for the public and tickets will cost Tk 20 each. The BFF will also give free entry to school students at Gallery No. 19, providing they show their school identity cards.

The BFF has invited a number of government officials, all former national footballers since the 60s and the VIP gallery will be out of bound for the general spectators to accommodate the guests.

There will be a brief physical display before the 5pm kick-off.

Bangladesh Television will telecast the match live while Bangladesh Betar will broadcast running commentary.

The winners will take home Tk 2 lakh cash reward apart from the glittering trophy worth Tk 8 lakh. The trophy, which will not be possessed by the winners, is curved with 600 grams of gold.

The Ministry of Liberation War Affairs is organising the eight-team even in association with Muktiyoddha Sangsad and the BFF.
