BILL SEEKING DUTY-FREE ACCESS TO US

US senators, congressmen assure BGMEA of support

STAR BUSINESS REPORT

US senators and congressmen have vowed to extend their support to pass a bill seeking duty-free access of all products from Bangladesh and 13 other least developed countries (LDCs) to the US.

Senator John McCain on Friday formally announced to be the cosponsor of the bill titled "Tariff Relief Assistance for Developing Economies Act of 2005" (Trade Act of 2005) after a BGMEA delegation met him on Thursday seeking his support to pass the bill.

A delegation of Bangladesh Garment Manufacturers and Exporters Association (BGMEA), accompanied by Grameen Bank Managing Director Dr Muhammad Yunus, is now visiting the US to seek support from influential US senators and congressmen to pass the bill.

The BGMEA also held separate meetings with Senator Hillary Clinton, Senator Richard Durbin, Congressman Joseph Crowley and Congressman Jim Colbe.

In the meetings, Dr Yunus explained two things helped Bangladesh bring about a significant change after its independenceone is micro credit programme and the other is the rise of readymade garment industry that has been helping to empower the poor

Bangladesh's RMG sector will face a serious setback and these poor women will become jobless if the bill is not passed, he told the US

BGMEA leaders requested Hillary Clinton to be the co-sponsor of the bill. In her reply, Hillary said she has good sympathy for Bangladesh and will extend her full Senator Richard Durbin also assured BGMEA leaders of extendingfull support.

The bill seeking duty-free market access of all products from Bangladesh and 13 other least developed countries (LDCs) to the US market was placed in the lower chamber of Congress on February 17 and it was also introduced in the upper house on January 26.

Four senators, both from Democrats and Republicans, supported moving the Trade Act of 2005.

John McCain, who has a Bangladeshi adopted daughter, told the BGMEA leaders that he would extend his full support to pass the

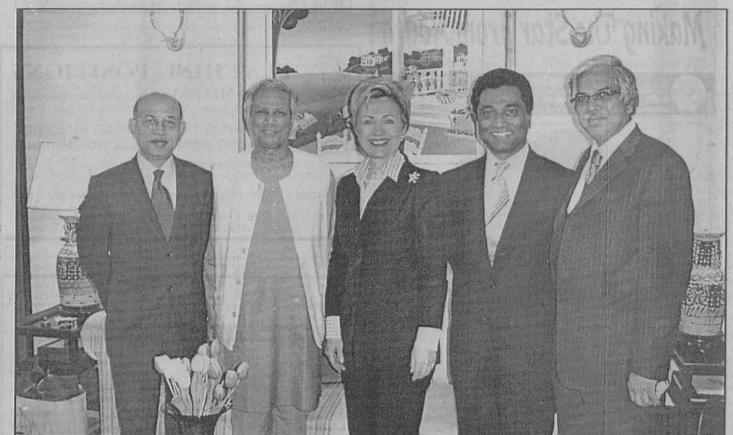

BGMEA President Annisul Hug is leading the delegation while other members include Second Vicepresident Anwar-ul-Alam

DCCI workshop observes

STAR BUSINESS REPORT

Speakers at a workshop yesterday underscored the need for increasing training and marketing facilities, sharing information, access to finance and other privileges to encourage women entrepreneurs.

Bangladesh has to match with the growth of other Asian economies and there is no way on part of this country to achieve its goals if 50 percent of its population -- the women folk -- are not given opportunities to live up to their full potentials, they added.

The Dhaka Chamber of Commerce and Industry (DCCI) organised the workshop on 'Enabling Environment for Women Entrepreneurship Development' in cooperation with the Center for International Private Enterprise (CIPE) -- an affiliate of the US Chamber of Commerce, Washington DC, USA -- held at the DCCI auditoriumin Dhaka.

Speaking at the workshop as chief guest Hua Du, officer-in-charge of the Asian Development Bank (ADB), said ADB highly emphasise on promoting women entrepreneurship here.

PM's Vietnam visit to focus on trade

UNB, Dhaka

Prime Minister Khaleda Zia undertakes a 3-day official visit to Vietnam on May 17 with promotion of bilateral trade, investment and economic cooperation on top of her

"This is an important visit in the context of increasing bilateral trade and investment since Bangladesh and Vietnam enjoy excellent political relations and both the countries have potential sectors for cooperation," a foreign ministry official told the news agency yesterday. He said a business delegation is likely to accompany the prime minister to explore areas of cooperation, including joint venture in prospective sectors of the two countries.

Prime Minister Khaleda makes the return visit to Vietnam following President Tran Duc Luong's tour of Dhaka on March 22-24 last year. During the visit, a number of agree ments or MoUs on avoidance of double taxation, cooperation in agriculture and a cultural exchange programme for 2004-07 were signed.

Although the two-way trade accounts for a modest turnover of US$ 20 million, there is enough scope for enhancing the volume, he said, adding that Bangladesh's medicines and garment accessories

Hindustan Lever quarterly profit drops 15pc

AFP, New Delhi

India's biggest consumer goods company, Hindustan Lever Limited (HLL), said Friday first quarter profit fell 15 percent, despite strong sales because of higher raw material

Shares of the company, a unit of Anglo-Dutch Unilever Plc, slid 5.4 percent on the Bombay Stock Exchange to 135.65 rupees on the back of the announcement.

HLL, which makes Surf and Wheel detergents, Lipton tea and Close Up toothpaste, said net profit during the January to March quarter fell to 2.59 billion rupees (60.23 million dollars) from 3.03 billion rupees a year earlier.

Sales for the quarter rose 6.9 percent to 25.06 billion rupees from 23.53 billion rupees a year earlier.

M.S. Banga, chairman of HLL, said the decline was due to "unprecedented crude oil-related input costs,"
