BDR chief to visit Tin Bigha Thursday
BSS, Patgram

Director General (DG) of Bangladesh Rifles (BDR) Major General Jahangir Alam Chowdhury will visit Tin Bigha Corridor, Dahagram and Angurpota enclaves under Patgram upazila of the district on May 12, official sources said.

He will meet the local people of Dahagram-Angurpota enclaves and inquire about their problems with view to taking necessary steps to develop the socio-economic condition of people.

Deputy Inspector General (DIG) of Coochbehar Sector of Border Security Force (BSF) of India Brigadier General (Retd) AK Bhanot and Commandant of 122 BSF Battalion along with other BSF officials are expected to meet General Jahangir on the other side of the border during the visit to exchange good wishes between the two border guards.

General Jahangir will be given a guard of honour by a BSF contingent on the occasion, the sources said.

Students of International Turkish Hope School sing a song at a Mothers' Day programme at Uttara Club in the city on Sunday.

Mothers' Day celebrated

International Turkish Hope School celebrated Mothers' Day on Sunday with a grand festive fervour 'Mothers' Day Special' - Modhur Amar Mayer Hashee', says a press release.

The students along with their parents of Uttara Preschool Section attended the function at Uttara Club.

The function conveyed respect and regards to all the mothers who were the epitome of that event as the programme was dedicated to them.

Mother is someone who has been gifted by God as a blessing and as a symbol of love in our lives. The children articulated this special role of a mother through mesmerizing performances.

JCD demands Ducsu polls

DU CORRESPONDENT

Jatiyatabadi Chhatra Dal (JCD) demanded that the authorities immediately hold polls of Dhaka University Central Students' Union (Ducsu) and other students' bodies at different universities and colleges across the country.

The JCD, student wing of the ruling BNP made the demand at a rally on Dhaka University (DU) campus yesterday.

Addressing the rally, the JCD leaders said the Ducsu election must be held immediately for creating unique leaderships among the students. They said there is no alternative to Ducsu, which is a platform for the general students to voice their demands and a shelter for all the students' organisations to practice quality leadership.

They urged the university authorities to take proper measures to hold the election by this year for the greater interests of the common students.

Presided over by JCD DU unit President Hasan Mamun, the rally was also addressed by JCD Senior Vice-President Sultan Salauddin Tuku, Abdul Kader Bhuiyan Jewel, Jawanta Kumar Kundu and Shahnur Nargis and Afiana Akther.
