We & Our Management Trainee Scheme

ABUL
KHAIR
GROUP

We....

Abul Khair Group is one of the leading and successful business houses in the country. The Group is managed by professionals which includes both expatriates & locals. Besides its owners, a corporate structure has been put in place by a board of Directors of professional reputation aiming to bring meaningful professionalism across the business in the new economy.

Our HR vision is to offer a 'career just not the job' to the right candidates and thus to position our 'employer brand' as one of the most preferred employers in the country 'caring for people'.

Currently, we have strong presence in Cement, Steels, Tobacco including manufacturing and marketing of consumer goods of diversified range besides it's well set trading business. The company is further aiming at more investment in the area of it's expertise.

You....

With the highly ambitious growth targets in the business portfolio coupled with focused business expansion plan, we are looking for you as 'Management Trainee'

You need to know our 'Management Trainee Scheme'

Our trainee policy : is to recruit high potential fresh graduates as 'Trainees' in any function. They are considered as the future leaders in business. Trainee period would be minimum 12 months in that they will receive our special attention for development before full time placement on jobs with clarity of given role. We have our in-house program to guide them, attach them with appropriate functions, coach them and train them to build their operational expertise/knowledge. They are the fast trackers – move faster in their career provided they are able to make it.

Selection Process:

- (1) Following primary screening, the candidates will receive 'Application Blank' to send us structured information for a review,
- (2) Eligible candidates will face competitive written examination to prove their skill/knowledge level,
- (3) On the result of competitive examination, a preliminary interview will be organized for the successful candidates in that the interviewers face to face will take a call to get a realistic feel of the knowledge & competence of the right candidates which in fact is the semi final screening shot,
- (4) The process of final selection sets in with the short listed successful candidates in which they will prove to the selection board their level of competencies i.e. leadership profile – this test will be based on short business case study and group discussion and
- (5) The last bit in the final process is the informal discussion session with the candidates to sum up their performance in the whole process and thus coming to a close – if the candidates are found meeting or beating the expectation of the selection board, employment as 'Management Trainee' is offered.
