Push-in bid by BSF foiled

BSS, Hilli
 said. According to sources in BDR, police and witnesses, a huge number of BSF troops from New Balupara, Hilli, Bakshiganj camps under Potiram 5 BSF battalion brought 30 Bangla speaking Indians in two groups at 7:30pm on Sunday along these borders. BSF troops repeatedly attempted to push them into Bangladesh through different points of the four km long borders from pillar no. 283 opposite to Atapara outpost in Joypurhat to pillar no. 288 opposite to Basudebpur outpost in Dinajpur till 5:30am yesterday. But BDR jawans under Joypurhat 29 rifles battalion, members of police, Ansar-VDP and hundreds of frontier villagers with bamboo sticks and whistles have created stiff resistance and foiled push-in attempts by the BSF. A painful situation was created as the panic-stricken victims raised hue and cry when BSF troops were shifting them from one place to another after failing to push them into Bangladesh. Later, BSF troops were forced to take the victims away from the bordering areas at around 5:30am yesterday, sources said.

Reintroduce UZ system to make JS effective
 Speakers tell roundtable

STAFF CORRESPONDENT
 Lack of political will is the main obstacle to reintroducing Upazila system, speakers at a roundtable said yesterday. They said parliament will not be effective unless the Upazila system is reintroduced as the lawmakers will remain busy with distribution of rice and wheat and other local government activities instead of concentrating on making laws. The Upazila System Implementation Parishad organised the roundtable on "Upazila system in Bangladesh: The past, present and future" at the National Press Club. Leaders of different political parties took part in the roundtable. Saifuddin Ahmed Manik, general secretary of Gono Forum, called for decentralisation of power and said MPs should not be involved in local government activities. Mahmudur Rahman Manna, organising secretary of the Awami League, Firoz Rashid, political advisor to Jatiya Party Chairman HM Ershad, ASM Abdur Rob, president of a faction of Jatiya Samajtantrik Dal (JSD), Hasanul Haq Inu, president of another faction of JSD, defence and security analyst Brig. Gen. (ret'd.) M Sakhawat Hussain and several former Upazila chairmen spoke at the discussion. M Ziaul Haq Sarkar, a former Upazila chairman, presented the keynote paper.
