Australian High Commissioner Lorraine Barker speaks at a conference organised by the Institute of Hazrat Mohammad (SAW) at the Brac Centre auditorium in the city on Wednesday.

'Ensure justice to establish peace'

Speakers at a conference called for ensuring justice to establish peace.

The Institute of Hazrat Mohammad (SAW) organised the conference in the city on Wednesday to mark the International Day of Peace, says a press release.

Speaking as the chief guest, Palestinian Ambassador Mohammad Shahta Zarab said solutions to existing conflicts cannot be found through mere show of strength but must be achieved through dialogues and unity of mankind and through calls for love, patience, peace, justice and equality which form the basic principles of all religions.

Philippine Ambassador Jose Lino B Guerrero said there cannot be peace without justice. He also stressed the importance of love, patience and tolerance in building sustainable peace.

Australian High Commissioner Lorraine Barker called for cross-border collaboration and effective interfaith dialogues to gain better understanding of religion and win the war on terrorism.

"To achieve peace and harmony, we must seek reconciliation, defend religious freedom, underline the role of education and leave no room for partiality and sectarianism," said Ambassador of the Holy See Paul Tschang In-Num.

M Asafuddin, former secretary and editor of The Bangladesh Today, said peace can only be achieved through social and political justice. He reiterated that superpowers have to change their actions and realise that injustice is the root cause for non-attainment of peace.

Former state minister for foreign affairs Abul Hasan Chowdhury, former ambassador Mohammad Zamir, former secretary Dr Moshir Rahman, Md Sayedul Hoque MP, Consul of the Consulate of Singapore Manik T Binwani and Chief Advisor of the Institute Lt Gen (Retd) M Nooruddin Khan also spoke.
