Four murders were committed on September 28, 2003 in Rajnagar upazila in Habiganj district and the lone eyewitness to the gruesome incident was picked up from his house and killed on the night of April this year, allegedly by the accused.

All the accused are moving freely in the area brandishing firearms and threatening the victims' families to withdraw the case, it was alleged at a press conference held at Sylhet Press Club on Sunday.

Police are not arresting the accused as they are influential and known to be men of a local ruling party lawmaker, Rani Begum, daughter of the slain witness Aina

The family members demanded immediate arrest of the killers to save the victims' families.

AL leader murdered in Kushtia

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Kushtia

An Awami League leader was hacked and killed allegedly by BNP men at Boalia village in Daulatpur upazila in Kushtia Monday night.

According to a case filed with Daulatpur thana, Muktar Hossain, 60, a leader of Boalia union AL, was hacked by a group of BNP men led by Nazmul when he was returning home from market at about 9 pm

They left him taking him to be dead. Passers-by took him to the local health complex and then to Kushtia General Hospital where he died at about 12 midnight.

Local AL has demanded arrest of Nazmul and his alleged godfathers Momtaz Seikh and Awlad Hossain, masterminds of the murder.

AL leaders alleged that the killers could not be arrested due to interference by the local lawmaker.

Police said the killing was sequel to rivalry for establishing supremacy in the area.

Netrakona AL leaders bury differences

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Netrakona

Netrakona Awami League leaders have closed ranks after four years of internal feud and are taking up programmes jointly.

The feuding factions led by former MP Fazlur Rahaman Khan and Shamsujjuha, president of newly formed district committee, have buried their differences following the recent visit of party central secretary Abdul Jalil MP, party sources told this correspondent. They had fallen apart over party nomination in the 2001 parliamentary polls.

The two groups took out processions jointly in the town during the September 21 countrywide hartal and are observing party programmes together since then.

Talking to this correspondent, Fazlur Rahaman Khan said we are holding joint programmes in the district to intensify the on-going anti-government agitation.

Shamsujjuha said, "There are no conflict in Netrakona AL. We will run miscreants who attacked a Hindu temple at Jhowdanga in the Sadar upazila on September 4 and threatened a priest to stop religious activities there.

Since then, all religious rituals and preparations for the Durga Puja are now stopped at four temples in the area.

The decision to suspend religious activities was announced at a press conference held at Satkhira Reporters Club after the September 4 incident. The press conference was addressed by general secretary of Jhowdanga Crematorium Committee Biswanath Ghosh. In a written statement at the press conference, he alleged that some vested quarters were trying to occupy lands of the century-old crematorium at Jhowdanga. They are threatening the Hindu community not to worship at the temples.
