WTO members regroup after failed effort to kickstart talks

AFP, Geneva

World Trade Organisation members regrouped Tuesday at the body's headquarters, a day after the US and EU won little support for subsidycutting plans aimed at kick-starting talks on liberalising international commerce.

A gathering of trading nations in Zurich Monday did little to break the enduring deadlock in the WTO's fouryear-old Doha Round negotiations. Officials have warned that failure in meetings this week could jeopardise the WTO's crucial summit in Hong Kong, which is meant to draft a multilateral accord cutting subsidies, customs duties and other barriers to world trade.

With the summit just over 60 days Tokyo said it would come up with an away, the 148 trading nations in the alternative proposal later this week in WTO are desperate to avoid a replay of Geneva, where the WTO is holding their 2003 bust-up at a summit in more talks. Cancun, Mexico, which mired their Portman's plan calls for a 60 percent cut in the subsidies Washington talks for more than a year. > But Japanese Agriculture Minister Mineichi Iwanaga told reporters: "Japan is not able to accept the US proposal on domestic support as a basis for further discussion because the extent of the reduction the US is willing to make on its own domestic support is insufficient, in our view."

Japan is among countries seeking to protect their farmers from farreaching liberalisation in the WTO talks.
