Abdur Razzaque, a master sculptor passes away

CULTURE CORRESPONDENT

PROFESSOR Abdur Razzaque, a leading artist, passed away on October 23. He died of cardiac arrest in Jessore.

Razzaque was basically an abstract and geometric artist in his sculptural work. He was a purist in painting and print making too. He worked in oil, acrylic and water colour during the 50s, 60s and later, he got his post graduate education from Iowa, USA in 1957 and worked under the famous print maker Mauricio Lasansky.

Proficient in graphics, sculpture and painting, he is especially remembered for his role in establishing the Department of Sculpture in Fine Arts, DU, in 1959. He was famous for his smooth, concave, abstract work in the modern concave style. His Face of an old woman, 1966, is a powerful wooden work. His metal sculptures are generally compositions balancing vertical and horizontal planes and spaces.

Self portrait (top) by Abdur Razzaque and one of his sculptures

Although sculpture was close to his heart, he also spent a lot of time in painting. Razzaque said, "I have always remained close to nature, which is ever changing and powerful. I have tried to learn the rules of nature. I am interested in knowing life fully and portraying it. I arrange form and space with colour, line and shapes. My work develops gradually, experiencing many changes." One of his memorable works is The Garden done in yellow, red and blackish brown. It was exhibited in the Fifth Asian Biennale.

He had six solo shows in USA and Bangladesh. His joint shows, 30 in number, were held at USA, UK, Germany, Poland, Norway, Turkey, Iran, Brazil, Pakistan, India, and Sri Lanka. He participated in numerous Asian Biennales arranged by the Shilpakala Academy.

He won the Ekushe Padak in 1987, and the Bangla Charu Shilpi Shangsad Honour in 1989.

Eid special

Abu Sufian's TV plays on three channels

CULTURAL CORRESPONDENT

Abu Sufian has written three TV plays on the occasion of this Eid, for different channels: BTV, ATN Bangla and Channel i. Joutukachar will be telecast on BTV on the second day of Eid. The dowry-demanding father of Jalal seeks a sum of Taka 8 lakh as a pre condition for giving his son in marriage. Helena is a girl from the same village who is determined to marry without dowry. The irony is that the duo get married despite their initial hesitation.

The second play is for ATN Bangla. The play, titled Jalrangpadya, will be aired on the third day of Eid at 9 pm. This comedy is about an aspiring playwright Imran, who comes face to face with an obstacle: the TV channel for which he wants to write a play poses the condition that he should first find a popular director for his play.

The final work is Harkat-e-Badan scheduled to be telecast on Channel i on the seventh day of Eid. The protagonist of the play, Tahsin's mother, can see into the future through her special power of Harkat. This leads to amusing incidents within the family. These three plays will feature Tauquir Ahmed, Richi Solaiman, Meer Sabbir, Chumki, Enamul Haque, Raisul Islam Asad, Rahmat Ali, Rasheed Harun, Shabnam Parveen, Ferdousi Leena, Hridi Haque, Amirul Islam and a cluster of new artists.
