Award winners Nikhil Sen (R) and Aminur Rahman Mukul at the event

CULTURAL CORRESPONDENT

OVEMBER 27 is the birth anniversary of Martyr Muneir Cowdhury. To mark the day, Theatre, a leading theatrical troupe of the country, conferred two awards Martyr Muneir Chowdhury Award and Zakaria Smrity Padak to Nikhil Sen and Aminur Rahman Mukul respectively at Mahila Samiti Stage. Theatre personality Abdullah Al Mamun handed over the awards to the recipients, while Ramendu Majumdar delivered the welcome speech. The Editor of The Daily Sangbad, Bazlur Rahman was the chief guest while theatre personality Ataur Rahman was the special guest. Professor Kabir Chowdhury was chairperson at the award giving ceremony. The Martyr Muneir Chowdhury Award was introduced in 1989 in memory of the martyred intellectuals during the Liberation War. The aim is to honour the senior theatre activists or organisations of the country for their lifetime achievement in theatre. Mohammed Zakaria was the first to bag the prestigious award in 1989.

The Zakaria Smrity Padak was introduced in 1997 to encourage promising theatre activists of the country. The award is instituted in memory of the late pioneering theatre activist Mohammed Zakaria, who made a tremendous contribution to theatre since 1944. Ahmed Iqbal Haidar, a theatre actor-director and organiser of Chittagong, was the first to receive the Zakaria Smrity Padak in 1997.

Nikhil Sen

The award is a landmark for Nikhil Sen, as it is the first time that a district level theatre activist is being honoured for his contribution to theatre. He is the founder member of the Barisal Shilpi Sangsad, formed in 1951. In 1953 he formed a theatre troupe named Barisal Theatre.

Since 1941, he has dedicated himself to cultural activities, especially theatre and recitation in Barisal. To quote Nikhil, "Most of the theatre activists as well as recitors in Barisal are my disciples. I am the chief of Barisal Natok, a local theatre troupe. So far I have directed 28 stage plays, of which Manoi Mitra's Shaiano Bagan, Momotaz Uddin Ahmed's Nildarpan and Mamunur Rashid's Ora Kadam Aligot plaudits from the audience.'

What is his reaction to the latest award? Nikhil says, "Earlier I received many prestigious awards like the Bangladesh Group Theatre Federation Reception in 1999, District Shilpakala Academy Reception in 1996 and others. However, none of these awards is as prestigious as the Martyr Muneir Chowdhury Award. This will be a boost to my cultural activities even at this age.'

Commenting on the current theatre scenario in Barisal, Nikhil says, "As many as 11 theatre troupes like Kheyali, Shabdabali, Barisal Natok and others have been regularly staging plays. Like in other districts, a shortage of halls is the major problem in Barisal. The only theatre ### lays. Moreover, audience turnout is low inspite of th fact that there is a sizeable number of artistes. If they had better infra structural support as well as training they could have done even better.

Aminur Rahman Mukul

Young talent Aminur Rahman Mukul is the winner of the Zakaria Smrity Padak-2006 for his contribution to theatre. Besides the prestigious Zakaria Smrity Padak, earlier this year Mukul has received two more awards --Tanusree Padak provided by Natvadhara and SM Solaiman Smrity Padak awarded by the Theatre Art Unit.

Asked for his response, Mukul, the head of Palakar, an alternative theatre troupe, said, "It has had a mixed impact on me. This year I have won three awards. Understandably people in Bangladesh ask why I have been awarded three laurels in a year. However, I believe the awards will force me to contribute more to theatre."

What's the secret behind winning three awards in a year? In Mukul's words, "I believe the secret behind receiving the awards is my organisational skill related to my troupe Palakar. Besides BGTF based mainstream theatre practice, Palakar has successfully introduced the 'studio theatre' movement in Dhaka without taking any funds, which I believe, is a contribution to our theatre movement. Studio theatre is practiced only in few universities, but Palakar has taken the concept to the masses. I am still learning and I am not yet satisfied with mvendeavour in theatre.'

So far Aminur Rahman Mukul has directed 12 fullfledged stage plays for different district level troupes including Dhaka City. Of these plays only Mangula is a Palakar production. Others are the productions of different district level troupes. "I have directed plays produced by different district level theatrical groups, including those from Chittagong, Sylhet, Khulna, Tangail and Sirajganj. In Dhaka, besides my troupe Palakar, I have directed plays produced by Dhaka Natya Niketan and Theatre Centre,' says Mukul Mukul is also a playwright. He writes street plays and studio plays. His street play, Tair Alir Buke Miju Munshir Pao, a satire on contemporary politics, has won appreciation.

In addition, Mukul has designed the set and light for different productions. Mukul says, "My set design for the play Sampannyaya, a Uttaradhikar production, has got appreciation. So far, I have designed the set for nine plays, including Nurul Diner Sharajibon, when Nagotrik Natya Sampradaya reproduced it. Besides, I have done the

Silver jubilee celebration of BGTF begins today

ERSHAD KAMOL

Bangladesh Group Theatre Federation (BGTF) celebrates its silver jubilee today. The organisation has a mandate to: safeguard the professional interest of theatre personalities and to create opportunities for them; develop drama; free drama from bureaucratic control; mobilise public opinion against laws violating fundamental rights; take active steps to establish permanent stages in different parts of the country; nurture the ideology of group theatre; inform drama with social purpose; publish material related to theatre; establish a theatre museum; arrange workshops at national and international levels; .arrange national drama festivals; and adopt welfare programmes for people associated with theatre.

BGTF arranged a press conference at the National Press Club yesterday.

Secretary General of BGTF, Liaquat Ali gave an update of today's events to mark the organisation's silver jubilee celebration at the Experimental Theatre Stage at Bangladesh Shilpakala Academy at 5 p.m.

The programme is likely to draw people from different strata of society. The evening will include cultural events and staging of excerpts from two plays Galileo and Binodini. Presidium members-- M Hamid, Keramat Moula and secretaries of the executive committee of BGTF were present at the press conference. Mamunur Rashid, the chairperson of BGTF, presided over the programme.

Mamunur Rashid said, "From its inception, the Federation has played an active role in promoting cultural awareness among the masses and encouraging the growth of a theatre culture. The abrogation of Acting Control Act is our major achievement.

tre leaders announced a 10- day drama festival which will begin from December 2 at the Experimental Theatre Stage and stage 10 popular stage plays. It is a fundraiser effort to support the treatment of theatre activist Mujibur Rahman Dilu, who has been suffering from GBS.

Artistes present songs of yesteryears at the programme

CULTURAL CORRESPONDENT

Cultural group Srijon organises regular monthly programmes. This month's show, titled Songs of Yesteryears, was held at the Poet Sufia Kamal Auditorium of the National Museum Saturday last. The programme featured the melodious and timeless songs of some contemporary popular and promising artistes. Masud Ahmed presented the moving number Madhur Amar Mayer Hashi while other evergreen songs, such as Padmar Dheu Re and Lalon numbers charmed the audience.

The other artistes included Mahiuzzaman Chowdhury, Soheli Parveen, Halima Begum, Manju Shaha, Bijon, Shikha Rouf and Nasreen Jahan. Directed by the chairman of Srijon Nurul Islam

Polash, the instrumentalists were Nurul Islam Polash on the tabla. Ronny on keyboards, Abu Kamal on violin and Ashrafuzzaman on guitar. To promote and popularise the traditional music among the younger generation, Srijon organises such programmes on the last Saturday of every month. The programme began three years ago and continues to be successfully staged.
