Employment Opportunities in UNDP- Bangladesh

1. Programme Officer-GEF (Global Environment Facility)/MP (Montreal Protocol)-One position: UNDP is one of the Implementing Agencies for the Global Environment Facility (GEF). UNDP-GEF provides the supporting projects with grants for interventions in the areas of biodiversity, climate change, international waters, land degradation, the ozone layer, and persistent organic pollutants.

The incumbent in the vacant position will support the management and development of UNDP Bangladesh's portfolio of GEF projects. This includes ensuring timely and effective completion of ongoing projects, and the development of new projects-facilitating their-progress from pipeline to implementation. His/her major responsibilities will be: (a) Providing technical support to project proponents in development, implementation and monitoring of GEF-funded projects, (b) Regular communication and partnership development with global and regional UNDP-GEF staff, UNDP Country Office staff, Government counterpart agencies and project proponents, (c) Compiling reports and briefing notes for meetings with Project Management Unit, UNDP and Government, (d) Identifying, communicating and incorporating in documentation links between GEF projects and sectoral development objectives, UNDP's Country Programme, and other multi or bilateral agency programmes/projects, (e) Contributing to further development and application of GEF M&E tools and methodologies for effective implementation and performance assessment of on-going projects, (f) Working with the project proponents, and drafting project revisions including adjusting individual project budgets on the basis of changed work plans and project delivery- and managing fund disbursement with attention to the work plan, (g) Maintaining updated knowledge on developments within the GEF, regarding the Fund's strategic priorities, procedures and formats- in addition to having working knowledge on the Conventions on Biodiversity, Climate Change and UNCCD and development issues of the country. Required Qualifications and Experience: The ideal incumbent in this position would need to have a at least a Masters Degree in Environment Science, Geography or other related subjects, with at least 5 years of relevant work experience. S/he must have the proven ability to establish priorities and plan, coordinate and monitor own work plan, and to communicate well orally and in writing e.g. preparing reports and conducting presentations. Good understanding and ability to apply the principles of sustainable development, natural resource management and MEAs to the work are essential. Good computer skills and skills in using corporate software are also needed. Understanding of the structures of different governmental institutions and their operational procedures is preferable. Field monitoring and knowledge of participatory approaches, techniques and methodology are desirable.

2. Programme Officer for Human Rights and Rule of Law- One position:

Under the supervision of the Assistant Resident Representative (Governance), this Programme Officer will assume day-to-day responsibility for a portfolio of governance projects which are implemented in close cooperation with key national institutions. The Programme Officer's primary objective will be to facilitate the provision of technical support to key governance institutions within the public sector. He or she must have a solid understanding of institutional and procedural prerequisites for "democratic governance", especially in the field of human rights and the rule of law, and must also possess strong project management skills. The Programme Officer will carry out such functions as: (a) participate actively in UNDP's upstream policy dialogue on governance issues with GoB officials, academia, NGO's and other partners, (b) develop strong specialized knowledge about selected governance issues by listening and learning from senior project experts, the Internet, UNDP's practice area networks, etc., (c) work closely with all other members of the Democratic Governance Team, both professionals and support staff- to achieve a high-quality team effort and efficient support for all UNDP-funded projects in the field of Democratic Governance, (d) ensure that the Democratic Governance programme is proactively monitored through field visits, and that the accountability for project implementation, incl. financial planning and budgets, is strictly adhered to in the interest of substantive results.

Required Qualifications and Experience: The successful candidate must possess the following competencies: (a) A Master's Degree from a reputable university in a Governance discipline, e.g. law, economics, political science, sociology, or public administration; (b) working experience for at least seven years in an institutional environment that is directly relevant to Democratic Governance; (c) substantive conceptual/analytical skills; (d) strong inter-personal/negotiating skills; (e) good leadership and team building skills; (f) strong networking and communication skills; and (g) a pro-active, results-oriented and energetic personality.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Only short-listed candidates will be notified. They will be expected to appear for a written examination, and only those whose exam results are satisfactory will be invited for an interview by a panel of UNDP officials. The candidates selected will receive a remuneration which commensurates with UNDP's salary scale for national professionals, along with child allowance, health insurance and pension benefits. They will be recruited initially for a 3-month probation period, after which contracts will be renewed annually based on consistently satisfactory performance and annual assessment of the same.

All applications must include a detailed curriculum vitae. They are to be submitted at the latest by close-of-business on 07 January 2006 to Assistant Resident Representative (Human Resources), UNDP, G.P.O. Box 224, Dhaka-1000. The envelope should be clearly marked with the title of the post being applied for. UNDP's recruitment processes are based exclusively on professional qualifications and experience. Unsolicited interventions ("shupareesh") in favour of a particular applicant will automatically result in the immediate disqualification of the recommended applicant. Further information can be found at the following web-site: http://www.un-bd.org/undp/jobs/

UNDP is a smoke-free work environment.

Women candidates are encouraged to apply.
