

Old Faujians' Association Chairman Obaidur Rahman Khan inaugurates the new premises of the association at House # 179, Lane # 02, Eastern Road, New DOHS, Mohakhali in the city recently. The Old Faujians' Association is a global organisation of former cadets of Faujdarhat Cadet College. Many old Faujians attended the inaugural function.

Int'l confce on microbiology education today

A Japan-Bangladesh Joint International Conference on Microbiology Education and the Prospect of Japanese Collaboration in Education and Research will be held at Sonargaon Hotel in the city today, says a press release. Stamford University Bangladesh and some Japanese universities and educational institutions will organise the conference.

President Iajuddin Ahmed will inaugurate the conference as the chief guest, with Professor M A Hannan Feroz, Vice Chancellor and President of Stamford University Bangladesh, in the chair.

Education Minister Dr M Osman Farruk, State Minister for Ministry of Education A N M Ehsanul Haque Milon, University Grants Commission Chairman Prof Dr M Asaduzzaman and Dhaka University Vice Chancellor Prof Dr S M A Faiz will be present as special guests.

Dr Takashi Uemura, Professor Emeritus of Osaka Prefecture University, Japan, will be present as a guest of honour.

Stamford University has requested all concerned to make the conference a success.

Science Fair held at British Council

Summerfield International School won the first prize at the Science Fair at British Council recently, says a press release.

The theme of the Science Fair was "Be an Eco-scientist, show and tell".

The students came up with an innovative project on bio-gas and water purification and presented it in an articulate manner. The chief guest at the event was Dr Mohammad Ibrahim, chairman of the Department of Physics of University of Dhaka, was present as chief guest.

June Rollinson, the director of British Council, opened the programme. A number of students from different schools participated in the fair.

Students of Summerfield International School who won the first prize at the Science Fair of the British Council pose for photograph at the award giving ceremony recently.

