Study in Australia

Your Pathway to Success in Sydney

University College of Western Sydney and the University of Western Sydney (UWS) work together to provide you with a pathway to success and the world!

University College offers a range of English Language Programs, Senior Secondary and Foundation studies, as well as Diplomas in Information Technology and Business. The Foundation and Diploma courses articulate into the first and second year of Bachelor degrees at UWS.

The University College advantage includes smaller class sizes resulting in closer personal attention for students. Courses are designed to encourage students to develop a mix of theoretical and practical knowledge that enhances your ability to achieve in a university environment of academic excellence.

At UWS, you can study undergraduate and postgraduate degrees from the more traditional areas such as business, health sciences, social sciences and law, to innovative courses in emerging fields such as aviation, e-business, information technology, web engineering and digital design.

The UWS advantage is that while we are one of the largest universities in Australia, our unique structure of six small campus communities means you will be treated as an individual.

Come and join us@UWS.
