

More donation for cancer hospital

Zeba Ali, principal of Maple Leaf International School, personally donated Tk 5 lakh to Ahsania Mission Cancer Hospital (AMCH) yesterday, says a press release.

For this donation, a bed of AMCH will be named after late Dr Nawab Ali, former principal of Dhaka Medical College and father-in-law of Zeba.

She handed over a cheque for the amount to Kazi Rafiqui Alam, president of Dhaka Ahsania Mission (DAM) at its office at Dhanmondi in the city.

Zeba said she had been inspired by the media to contribute in the construction of AMCH.

Expressing gratitude for the donation, Rafiqui Alam said with such donations construction of AMCH will be possible in time.

The 500-bed AMCH, which requires Tk 200 crore to finish its construction, has received over Tk 24 crore so far as donations.
