V for Vendetta

Freedom...forever.

Genre: Action / Sci-Fi / Thriller
Director: James McTeigue
Distributors: Warner Bros.

Starring: Natalie Portman, Hugo Weaving, Stephen Rea, Stephen Fry, John Hurt

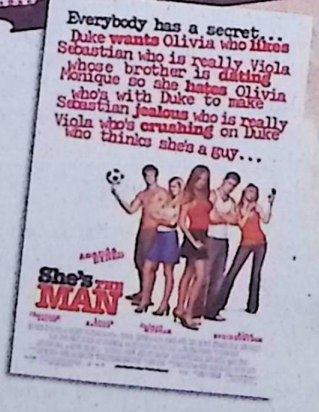

Set against the futuristic landscape of totalitarian Britain, V For Vendetta tells the story of a mild-mannered young woman named Evey (Natalie Portman) who is rescued from a life-and-death situation by a masked vigilante known only as "V." Incomparably charismatic and ferociously skilled in the art of combat and deception, V ignites a revolution when he detonates two London landmarks and takes over the government-controlled airwaves, urging his fellow citizens to rise up against tyranny and oppression. As Evey uncovers the truth about V's mysterious background, she also discovers the truth about herself - and emerges as his unlikely ally in the culmination of his plot to bring freedom and justice back to a society fraught with cruelty and corruption.

She's the Man

Everybody has a secret...

Genre: Comedy / Romance
Director: Andy Fickman
Distributors: DreamWorks

Starring: Amanda Bynes, Channing Tatum, Robert Hoffman (III), Alex Breckenridge

Viola Johnson (Amanda Bynes) had her own good reasons for disguising herself as her twin brother Sebastian (James Kirk) and enrolling in his place at his new boarding school, Illyria Prep. She was counting on Sebastian being AWOL from school as he tried to break into the music scene in London. What she didn't count on was falling in love with her hot roommate, Duke (Channing Tatum). The plot soon thickens.
