

BEDRAGGLED DHAKA

AFTER a long spell of sweltering heat, heavy rains came down in torrents on the city on Sunday. Starting early hours of Thursday, it continued incessantly till Friday. Life became an ordeal for those who had to go out for a living, as water logging was persistent in many areas. In spite of the downpour many bedraggled people enjoyed a sip of hot tea by the roadside.

Photo: SYED ZAKIR HOSSAIN

