AUSTRALIAN SCHOLARSHIPS: Australian Leadership Awards (ALA)
An opportunity for future leaders

The Australian Leadership Awards (ALA) is a new award scheme within the Australian Government's Australian Scholarships program. The purpose of ALA scholarships is to develop leadership within the Asia Pacific region. ALA scholarships are for longer-term post-graduate study in Australia at masters or doctoral level. Managed by the Australian Agency for International Development (AusAID), ALAs are competitive and open to citizens of 34 developing countries including Bangladesh.

Applications are now open and will close on 31 July 2006 for commencement at an Australian university in January 2007.

Relevant fields of study for an ALA include management, economics, business, political science, philosophy, history, law and public policy. In 2007, priority fields will include international trade, disease pandemics, security and clean energy.

To be eligible for an ALA Scholarship, an applicant must:

- Be a citizen of an ALA eligible country (which includes Bangladesh)
- Be residing in a country other than Australia and apply from outside Australia
- Be under 42 years of age in the year of application
- Have a conditional offer letter from an Australian university for entry into full time study in the above mentioned study areas for masters or doctoral studies in Australia;
- Have a record of high-level undergraduate or post-graduate academic achievement;
- Meet English language requirements:
  - o an IELTS Academic Test with a score of at least 6.5, with no band under 6.0; or
  - o a TOEFL test score of at least 580, including a score of at least 4.5 in the Test of Written English; or
  - o have a degree from Australia, New Zealand, the United Kingdom, the United States of America, or Canada

The test score must have been achieved no longer than six months prior to the time of application.

Preference will be given to candidates who can demonstrate:

- that they are in a leadership role, or
- have the potential to assume a leadership role in the public, private or community sectors

In each case merit will be given to candidates likely to influence development outcomes at the national and regional levels.

Awards will be allocated equitably between men and women.

Application and Guideline

Download, print and carefully read the application form and instructions.

Submit all required documentation to AusAID in Canberra, Australia ensuring that it is received by the specified application deadline (31 July 2006). The ALA program will be managed by AusAID in Australia.

Please read all the instructions carefully before making any enquiries. All queries should be sent to AusAID Canberra.

The ALA Scholarship Application Form and guidelines can be downloaded from www.ausaid.gov.au/scholar now.
