THE prize giving ceremony and the inauguration of painting exhibition of the 4th International Children-Art Biennale Competition'06 organised by Bangladesh Shishu Academy (BSA) in association with Unicef was held at the BSA auditorium on July 11.

Children from all over the world were invited to submit their paintings for the competition. Sixty one of the most outstanding works of art were selected by a jury of experts (Qayyum Chowdhury, Hashem Khan, Rafiqun Nabi, Abdus Shakoor Shah, Abdul Barq Alvi and Dr Farida Zaman) from 16,203 noteworthy entries from children in over 33 countries.

This year the Grand Prix (The highest honour in the competition) has gone to Md Nazmuz Sakib Priyo, a 10- year-old from the district of Nilphamari, Bangladesh. The theme of his art-work represents the adverse effect of natural disasters (cyclone).

More children than anticipated picked up crayon and paintbrush during the well organised events. Participants were free to choose their medium--water colour, pastel, crayon, ink among others. The participants were in the age group of 6-18 years.

Barrister Moudud Ahmed, the minister for Law, Justice and Parliamentary Affairs attended the occasion as the chief guest and distributed the prizes among the winners and their representatives. The state minister for Women and Children's Affairs Alamgir Kabir was present as a special guest. Professor Zubaida Gulshan Ara, chairman of BSA presided over the function.

The special guest of the event, James Jennings, chief of education section Unicef, Bangladesh said, "Children are an integral part of our society. They are our future. To get a better understanding of the world, we should be aware of their views as well. Children's painting is an expression of their imagination. Our role is to nurture the budding talents. Unicef has always encouraged activities related to children."

Six hundred and fifty two selected paintings will be exhibited till July 25 daily from 11am to 6:30pm.

The Daily Star and ATN Bangla are the media partners of the event.

Vignettes of nature, life and architecture

Photography exhibition at NSU

KARIM WAHEED

The ongoing exhibition at BTA Tower, North South University (NSU) features works by young photographers with keen eyes. Intra NSU Photography Competition and Exhibition 2006 is organised by North South University Photography Club (NSUPC) and was inaugurated on July 9.

Incidentally this is the first time NSUPC has organised a photography competition where only NSU students can participate. The aim is to encourage and promote budding photo-artists within the campus.

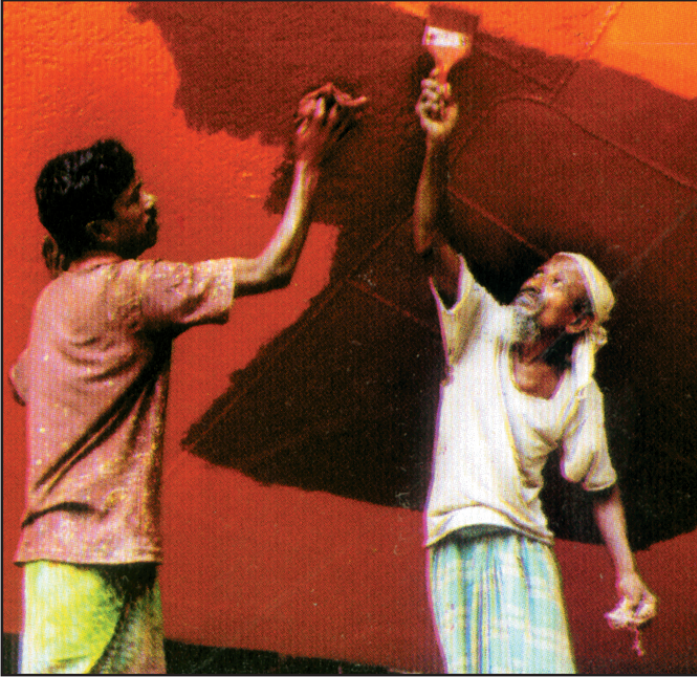

Fifty-five photographs by 25 photographers are competing for 10 prizes -- two in each of the five categories. The categories are: 'Nature and Landscape', 'Lifestyle', 'Portrait', 'Still Life' and 'Architecture'. The works have been judged by noted photographers Dr Noazesh Ahmed and Nasir Ali Mamun.

and lifestyle -- together."

In the beginning of the line up, the image of a purple and mauve sky with silhouettes of twigs provides one with the sense of serenity. The photograph titled Twilight Splendour by M Miran Hossain was taken in Bandarban. Other works by Miran also seem to follow the trend; a black and white landscape of mist-capped hills and foliage, complete with what seems like a narrow valley, for example.

Shudhui Bansh by M Shamsul Hoque frames piles of bamboo being soaked in the river Ichhamoti. The photograph was taken in Munshiganj. Anchol, the second prize winner in 'Portrait' category, by Hemonto Kumar Mondol highlights a baby smiling. The image confirms the infant's sense of comfort in the refuge of her mother's shoulder.

Smile of Green by Bayzeed Hayder is a refreshing image of bundled water lily buds. A young face is seen right

According to Dr Noazesh Ahmed: "It's heartening to see so many young enthusiastic photographers in our country nowadays. The abundance in nature of Bangladesh and the diversity of our people provide innumerable possibilities for a photographer. However, to develop a distinct identity, I feel, a photographer should work with a certain subject and not a number of them."

Nasir Ali Mamun believes that "Photography is an astounding necessity in today's world. The use of the medium in and outside our planet delineates its immense impact. A world without cameras would be inert. Images bring all the nations -- speaking different languages, with different creed below the bundles; probably off to the market to sell the buds which is widely consumed as vegetable. Sayem's Fog, Sunlight and Vegetation is adventurous yet soothing. Taken in Lawachara at 8 in the morning, the image captures the mystery of woods at its best.

Nature's Rage, a black and white image by Muhaimeur H Ador, has framed distant thunder hitting earth on a stormy night; a couple of high-rises pose as bystanders. Jatra by Prium Mujtaba, second prize winner in the 'Landscape' category, features silhouettes of two loaded vans, all set to start their journey. Khelaghor, first prize winner in the 'Architecture' category, by Faiz Mahmood shows an ant's eye view of an old building. Patterns and designs on the facade are noticeable characteristics of the Old Dhaka heritage.

Traces of brilliance can be sensed in quite a few of the images. Use of innovative angles, dramatic composition, intriguing subjects and utilising natural light in the images make the exhibition worth visiting.

The competition and exhibition ends on July 13 with an award giving ceremony.

The third phase of a workshop on 'Art with Collected Material or Unpopular Media' began on July 8 at Shunno Shilpashala, says a press release. Eminent artists Aminul Islam and Murtaza Basheer were present at the inaugural session. The seven-day long workshop is titled 'Nandaner Sandhane'.

Lynch to receive Golden Lion at Venice Film Festival

US director David Lynch is to be awarded the prestigious Golden Lion award for lifetime achievement at this year's Venice film festival.

Lynch, who is known for films -- Eraserhead, The Elephant Man and Blue Velvet, will collect the award on September 6.

The presentation will coincide with a screening of Lynch's latest film, Inland Empire. The drama, which will be shown out of competition, stars Laura Dern and Jeremy Irons.

French actress Catherine Deneuve is to head the jury at the Italian festival, which runs from August 30 to September 9.

Lynch headed the panel of judges at the Cannes film festival in 2002. His film Wild at Heart won the French festival's Palm D'Or in 1990 and his television series Twin Peaks became a huge cult hit.
