NSU Computer Club Soft Fair ends

The North South University Computer Club (NSUCC) of North South University had organised 3-day Soft Fair 2006 at Bashundhara City from 3 August to 5 August. The fair was titled "Entrance to Meet the Forthcoming technology". NSU Vice-chancellor Dr. Hafiz GA Siddiqi inaugurated the 7th fair. Club members, faculty members, students, visitors and officials were present on the occasion.

British Council holds first computer-based examination

The British Council conducted computer-based Association of Chartered Certificate Accounts (ACCA) examination for the first time in Bangladesh. In all, 22 candidates took part in the examination. The examination was developed by ACCA as part of their e-mail business strategy. The benefits of computer-based examination are flexibility and instant results.

Intra-University debate contest ends

The second Intra-University debate competition - 2006 organised by BCG Trust University in Chittagong came to and end on 6 August. The 4th batch BBA snatched the top prize by winning the competition. The 5th batch BBA became runner-up.

Academic programme launched by LCLBT

London College of Law, Business and Technology (LCLBT) launched its academic programme in Bangladesh. This institute offers courses on various subjects including law, business, technology and media.

Indonesian scholarship for Bangladeshi students

The Government of Indonesia has offered for the first time a number of scholarships for meritorious students from Bangladesh. The scholarships will be offered for Post Graduate (Master Degree), Non-Degree Plus (Undergraduate) and Non-Degree (Undergraduate) Programme for the academic year 2006-2007.