NSU MBA Club publishes Resume Book 2006

MBA Club at North South University (NSU) has just published the Resume Book 2006. Graduate students in Business Administration, Computer Science & Engineering (CSE), Development Studies, Economics and English are eligible for membership in the club. The first of the kind brochure contains the resumes of Master Degree holders and students pursuing degrees in these disciplines at NSU.

The Resume Book 2006 provides a treasure trove of information on the background and credentials of the best and the brightest NSU has to offer. The publication disseminates useful information about skilled, trained and talented job seekers to potential employers. This will help job-aspirants garner suitable employment opportunities and enhance their career prospects. This will also symbiotically provide business firms and potential employers an easy and ready access to a pool of prospective human resources with varied background, qualifications and proficiency.
