Classes start at private universities 6-13

Firstly, you will have to understand one thing: university is much bigger than your last school, regardless of which school you went to. The course contents are different, the manner in which they are taught is different, even the expectations of your teachers are different.

Chaos around the corner

Bangladesh has already been in the charts for all the wrong kinds of things over the many years. If we persist with the attitude we have now, sadly we will continue on the tracks that we have been running along for years to come. We have hardly managed to portray ourselves as a beautiful nation.

Skywatcher's Alamanac: Celestial 20-21

From a potentially spectacular summer meteor shower to a pair of lunar eclipses and compelling appearances of the planets, this year will be an excellent one for skywatching.
