Seminar on Media and Politics at Stamford University

THE Journalism and Media Studies department of the Stamford University Bangladesh (SUB) hosted a seminar on the relationship between the Media and Politics. The event titled ' Media and Politics: Old Habits and New Reality'. The programme was held on January 10 at the Stamford University, Dhanmondi campus.

The keynote paper was presented by Dr. Ali Reaz. MD. Samshul Islam, Head of the Journalism and Media Studies department, (SUB), Professor Naimul Islam Khan, Dr. Jafar Selim, and other faculty members were also present at the occasion.

Victory Day celebrations at Atish Dipankar University of Science & Technology

Atish Dipankar University of Science & Technology (ADUST) arranged a Cultural event to celebrate the Victory Day. The event was held at the BIAM auditorium on December 22. The programme featured songs, drama, poem, recitation and dance performed by the students.

Chief Guest of the event was Professor Dr Anwara Begum, Vice Chancellor, ADUST.

The whole event was organised by the students. Among them Sukanta, Nadim, Titu, Shovo, Kabir, Mehedi, Murad, Hares, Asma, Shamila and Sumon are worth mentioning.

The songs, drama, dance and poem recitation was done by Nancy, Sabbir, Asad, Royal, Promith, Mita, Bipu, Tuli, Sonia, Reshma, Mujib, Saiful and others.

-Mainul Hassan

Northern University Bangladesh to build permanent campus.

A signing ceremony was held between Northern University Bangladesh (NUB) and Estate Developer Bangladesh Ltd to inaugurate the construction of its permanent campus.

The event was held at the China Bangladesh Friendship Conference Center. The campus will be situated at Kazi Nazrul Islam Avenue, Dhaka. It will be a 18 storied building. The chief guest of the event was M Abu Bakar Siddique, Treasurer and acting Vice Chancellor NUB and special guest was Md. Faizul Bari, Managing Director of Estate Developer Bangladesh Ltd.

Distribution of warm clothes

The current cold spell has brought in its wake untold sufferings to the people of many parts of Bangladesh. Last Wednesday a pleasant and welcome surprise was waiting for the people of villages Punshohi, Morash, and Baraidi of Gazipur district when a team with help suddenly presented itself at the villages. Korotoa Health and Education Society(KOHEDS) distributed warm clothes among the poorest people of these areas. The materials offered included blankets, sweaters, trousers, shirts and baby wear. A team of KOHEDS lead by its vice president A.S.M Sarwar Uddin and executive director Md. Salah Uddin distributed warm clothes among the members of 125 families of the villages. KOHEDS has similar plans to cover other parts of the country like Manikgonj, Nagarbari, Saidpur, Panchagar, Sirajgonj, Rajbari, (riverside) etc.