STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Police yesterday recovered a floating body of a newly born baby boy in city's Dhanmondi Lake.

Locals saw the body of the baby, wrapped in red cloth, at around 10:30am near Dhanmondi No 8 Bridge and informed the patrol police, who later recovered it from the lake.

The body was sent to Dhaka Medical College Morgue (DMCH) for autopsy. DMCH morgue said the body that bore red marks was left in the lake 2-3 days back.

CU opens today

CU CORRESPONDENT

Residential students of Chittagong University (CU) started returning to their dormitories yesterday as the academic activities will resume today after a 20-day vacation on the occasion of Eid-ul-Azha.

The administrative activities of the university resumed on January 6.

The Eid vacation was scheduled to begin on December 30, but the authorities advanced the date of vacation to December 26 following a clash between Bangladesh Chhatra League and Islami Chhatra Shibir on the campus.

Some 30 students and a photojournalist were injured in the clash that took place on December 24.

Emergency not a solution Says 11-party

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

The state of emergency is not a solution to the country's crisis over holding the polls and forming an independent, neutral and trustworthy election commission (EC) is one of the tasks necessary to resolve the crisis, 11-party leaders said yesterday.

At a meeting of the central committee of the 11-party, the leaders said the EC should be overhauled by eliminating controversial officials from it and the voter roll should be made public as per regulations after updating it according to the Supreme Court (SC) directive to ensure a free and fair election.

The state of emergency was evident due to the volatile situation caused by President Iajuddin Ahmed who created new obstacles one after another to free and fair polls. Now the BNP-Jamaat alliance is attempting to prolong the state of emergency to impede any free and fair election and this is why they have been coming up with

Tk 4.7 lakh realised for pilfering Wasa water in Ctg

STAFF CORRESPONDENT, Ctg

A mobile court in a drive against theft of Water and Sewerage Authority (Wasa) water realised Tk 4.7 lakh as outstanding bill and penalty money from an industrial firm and an under-construction building in the port city yesterday.

During the drive made against Frozen Foods Limited of South Kattali area and Sattar Limited of Agrabad commercial area, the court found them stealing Wasa water setting up pumps bypassing metres.

The court realised outstanding bills of Tk 4 lakh and penalty money of Tk 40 thousand from Frozen Foods Limited.

It disconnected the illegal supply line of Wasa water at Sattar Limited and directed the latter for making payment of outstanding bills of Tk 3 lakh in full by today.

Meanwhile, the court in the same drive also fined and realised Tk 30 thousand from an under-construction building, Halima Bhaban, for illegal setting up of a deep tube-well at Halishahar area.

Chittagong Port Authority Magistrate Munir Chowdhury led the drive.
