SPORTS REPORTER

Irene Sultana slammed an explosive hundred on the opening day of the first Women's Cricket Championship as Khulna thumped Narayanganj by 234 runs at the Nabin Sangha ground yesterday.

In the 30-over-a-side match, Sultana took only 70 balls to rattle 105 as her side piled on 288 for five after winning the toss. In reply, Narayanganj skittled out for only 54 runs, with Alma taking three wickets.

After the opening ceremony at the Sher-e-Bangla National Stadium, Dhaka promptly dispatched Ansar and VDP by 34 runs, thanks mainly to Towhidha as she took four for 12.

Away at the Jahangirnagar University ground, Bholu outplayed the hosts by eight wickets.

Young opener Robin Uthappa hit a robust 70 off 42 balls as India made 268 all out in the third one-day international against the West Indies here on Saturday.

Captain Rahul Dravid scored 57 and senior pro Sachin Tendulkar returned to form with 60 after West Indian captain Brian Lara elected to field in the day-night game at the Chidambaram Stadium.

India, leading 2-0 in the four-match series, were cruising at 232-3 in the 35th over when the tourists bounced back with seven wickets for 36 runs.

Seamer Dwayne Bravo, hampered for 19 runs by Uthappa in his first over, grabbed four wickets for 20 runs in his next eight to lead the West Indian fightback.

Uthappa, a 21-year-old playing only his fourth one-dayer, enhanced his World Cup claims by smashing 11 boundaries and two sixes in his first appearance in the series.

The right-hander reached his half-century off 32 balls by lofting rookie all-rounder Reyad Emrit for a six and celebrated the landmark with the run feast off Bravo.

When Uthappa fell in the 11th over, holing out in the deep off Chris Gayle, he had contributed 70 runs with the run feast off Bravo.

Abahani face Mohammedan challenge

SPORTS REPORTER

 Abahani aim to consolidate their place in the Kai-Altech Premier Cricket League when the table-toppers take on archrivals and second-placed Mohammedan Sporting Club in a crucial seventh round match today.

In other matches, third-placed DOHS meet bottom-table Brothers Union at BKSP while Bangladesh Biman face City Club at Fatullah Stadium in a mid-table battle.

Abahani, the only unbeaten side, will also seek revenge of their Twenty20 League's group-stage defeat to eventual champions Mohammedan but eyebrows have already been raised in the authority's decision to host the megachash at the Sher-e-Bangla National Stadium in Mirpur.

Due to newly prepared pitches, Mirpur has been producing low-scoring matches throughout the season with 177 being the highest team total so far. The record, however, goes to Mohammedan.

Abahani coach Aminul Islam, a former Bangladesh captain, also raised the question about holding a prospectively attractive match at this ground.

"I am worried about the wicket because batting would be difficult here. I can't think why the league committee has decided to hold a big match like Abahani-Mohammedan at this ground," Aminul questioned.

The two captains, also successors to Aminul in the national team, but if the players are busy playing domestic competitions, the attraction of the league will not be hampered much," the national captain added.

"I am not concerned about the wicket. It's relatively new so it would be hard to score runs," said Habibul Bashar whose Mohammedan have suffered their only league defeat, to Biman, at this venue.

"It is an important match for us because if we lose, Abahani will open up a big lead in the table. I think our strengths are almost equal but Abahani have a very strong bowling and have won all their matches so far. So it would be a tight game," said Bashar, who missed the last game through a stomach upset.

It would be the last match for all national cricketers as they leave Dhaka for the Zimbabwe tour on January 31 and begin World Cup preparations after their return.

"I know it would be a long time when we come back to the league but if the players are busy playing domestic competitions, the attraction of the league will not be hampered much," the national captain added.

Even the authority does not know when the Super League will start after the 11-round first-leg ends in February.

With Sandeep Sharma gone back to India after playing just one match, Mohammedan will be

B. League bosses still sleeping

The Bangladesh Football Federation (BFF) may defer the start of the B. League by a day or two if the sponsors demand.

The BFF's main headache remains to get a sponsor for the inaugural Professional Football League scheduled to kick off on February 15, but the governing body of the game expected to strike a deal within two-three days, it was discussed in an executive meeting of the federation yesterday.

BFF's communications manager Sayeed Al Fatah told The Daily Star last night after the meeting that the sponsors, in a bid to get more exposure, might be interested to delay the start of the league and the BFF is ready to meet that demand.

South Africa were set 161 to win the third Test and series after bowling Pakistan out for 186 on Day Two at Newlands on Saturday.

That target could have been smaller after Dale Steyn took three wickets to reduce the tourists to 121 for seven.

Pakistan cracking fast

Pakistan were struggling to set a challenging target as wickets continued to fall on the second day of the decisive third and final Test against South Africa at Newlands Saturday.

Pakistan were 117 for six in their second innings at tea, an overall lead of 91, in an extraordinary match in which 26 wickets had fallen for 457 runs.

Pakistan captain Inzamamul Haq carried his team's hopes as the last remaining recognised batsman after Dale Steyn and Andrew Hall took two wickets each for South Africa. Inzamam was 19 not out.

South African wicketkeeper Mark Boucher earlier batted aggressively as South Africa squeezed out a slender first-innings lead.

Boucher hit an unbeaten 40 as South Africa made 183 all out, a lead of 26, on a pitch which has helped pace and spin bowlers.

South Africa, resuming on 131 for five, were soon in trouble when Ashwell Prince was given out in the third over with only two runs added.

Prince was beaten by a Danish Kaneria googly and it seemed that wicketkeeper Kamran Akmal had missed his second stumping chance against the left-hander.

The ball bounced off Akmal's gloves and Yasir Hameed dived forward from silly point to catch it. Umpire Steve Bucknor gave Prince out caught to the batsman's misjudged surprise. Replays suggested Prince had missed the ball.

Two balls later nightwatchman Paul Harris edged Mohammad Asif to Younis Khan at second slip and South Africa had lost two wickets for two runs.

Andrew Hall was quickly caught behind off Kaneria for four but Steyn stayed with Boucher long enough for 43 runs to be added for the ninth

Stephen glorifies Lou

Cricket

AFP, Perth

New Zealand captain Stephen Fleming is confident recalled opener Lou Vincent can once again rise to the occasion against Australia when the two sides meet here on Sunday.

Vincent, who has played 87 limited-overs internationals and spent his teenage years in Adelaide, has flown to Perth to join the New Zealand squad in the wake of Nathan Astle's shock retirement.

The right-hander, who was born in Australia, is expected to open the batting alongside Fleming in Sunday's triangular series one-day international and should have fond memories of the WACA ground.

It was at the WACA that Vincent made his Test debut in late 2001, scoring a century against Australia to launch a career that has not quite reached the heights that innings suggested.

Fleming said although Astle's retirement was a blow, Vincent was a capable replacement.

"It changes the fabric," Fleming said of Astle's departure.

"But you get Lou in, who has got skills to offer, and he's experienced."

"Not the experience that Nathan has got, but he has played against these guys quite a bit. He has opened the batting for New Zealand a lot."

Both Tendulkar and Dravid hit their 75th one-day half-centuries in a fourth-wicket stand of 106 before falling in the space of five runs to trigger the collapse.

Bravo, who removed Tendulkar to a catch in the deep, dismissed Yuvraj Singh and Dinesh Karthik in three balls and then took the last wicket of Shanthakumaran Sreesanth.
