Pohela Falgun at IUB

Nafis Ahmed

The Division of Students Activities (DoSA) of Independent University, Bangladesh (IUB) arranged a day long event on IUB campus on 13th February this year to celebrate pohela falgun. A concert in which students played music and sang to the popular tunes of the day was organised. Many of the faculty members were also seen in the audience taking a break from the ordinary and enjoying the music on the first day of spring. Though the day brought little sunshine and much rain the mood of the students and faculty alike were nowhere close to being gloomy. On campus, the dress code of choice was kurta by the boys and saree by the girls, all in bright colors which highlighted the cheery mood and the joyful atmosphere. All in all, the event was well organized and enjoyed by all as everyone came together to celebrate Pohela Falgun.
