'6000 child cancer patients detected a year in country'

BSS, Dhaka

Adviser for Health and Family Welfare Maj Gen (Retd) MA Matin yesterday said paediatric hematology and oncology department would be introduced in all medical colleges to provide specialised services to children suffering from cancer.

He said such facilities should be introduced even at the upazila health complexes for ensuring easily available treatment to childhood cancer at the grassroots level.

Speaking as chief guest at the inaugural session of a two-day workshop on 'Child Cancer' at BIAM auditorium in the city, he said 70 percent of childhood cancer is curable.

Prof MA Mannan, a noted paediatricians and oncologist, said up to 6,000 child cancer patients are being detected every year in the country.

"But it is surprising that there is only Gangabandhu Sheikh Mujib Medical University (BSMMU) has the Paediatric Hematology and Oncology Department with a 22-bed facility.

So it has become very difficult to cope with such huge number of childhood cancer patients, he added.

Prof Mannan urged the government to introduce such units in all medical colleges in the country.

BSMMU Vice-chancellor Md Tahir, Prof Puma Kurkure of TATA

Memorial Hospital of India, Prof Md Saiful Islam, head of oncology of Sanofi Aventis, Coordinator of My Child Matters Dr Davir Uddin Ahmed and Md Iftekharul Islam also spoke on the occasion.

'Ensure equal rights for students with disability'

BSS, Rajshahi

Discussants at an installation ceremony here yesterday emphasised the need for ensuring equal rights to students with disability for the development of their talents.

In this context, they observed that establishment of equity-based society and creation of educational and employment opportunities for the disadvantaged group are the constitutional obligation.

The Action on Disability and Development (ADD), working with disabled people to promote human rights, arranged the installation ceremony of the newly elected one-member executive body of 'Disabled

Students Rights Council (DSRC)' at the ADD training centre.

The speakers said importance should be given to making the disabled students more interested and encouraged to have institutional education both general and technical so that they can build themselves as worthy citizens.

Regional Deputy Director of Secondary and Higher Secondary Education Department Begum Sirajum Munira, Dr Sadhan Kumar Biswas, Habibr Rahman, Joychand Karmaker and Abdul Latif Badar took part in the discussion. Masud Rana presided.

Govt urged not to demolish houses of stranded Pakistanis

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Defying the High Court directives, the law enforcers have demolished the houses of the stranded Pakistanis under Pallabi Police Station in their ongoing eviction drive, said the stranded Pakistanis at a press conference yesterday urging the authorities not to demolish their houses, camps and business places without providing rehabilitation.

A total of 30 families have been suffering for the last couple of days as their shelters in Wapda building 2 and 3 at Mirpur Section 11 were bulldozed on Thursday during the eviction drive. Although the High Court in 2003 directed not to harass, evict or dispossess the shops and land used by the camp dwellers without providing alternative accommodation in three sections (10, 11, 12) under Pallabi Police Station in Mirpur.

Dhaka City Corporation (DCC) also warned the stranded Pakistanis through loudspeakers that their establishments might be demolished any time, the speakers said.

Stranded Pakistanis Youth Rehabilitation Movement (SPYRM) and Welfare Mission of Biharis organised the press conference at the Dhaka Reporters Unity (DRU).

Even the past governments also in different times ordered not to evict them and if necessary, development activities would be suspended in those areas, said the speakers.

"But flouting all these directives and decisions of the governments some corrupt officials in league with a section of the dishonest traders allotted plots in the camp areas showing camps as vacant land," said Mushtaq Ahmed, chairman of SPYRM.

"We will voluntarily vacate the camps if land is allotted for our habitation. Till then camps, shops and other structures adjacent to the camps should be kept out of the jurisdiction of the ongoing drive," he added.

Among others President of SPYRM Sadaqat Khan, General Secretary Shahid Ali, Adviser Syed Iqbal Zahur and Secretary of Welfare Mission of Biharis Billal Hossain were also present.

2 outlaws killed in 'crossfire'

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Pabna

Two top activists of outlawed Sramajibi Mukti Andolan of Kushtia were killed in an 'encounter' with Rapid Action Battalion (Rab) early hours Sunday at Char Ghoshpur village in Pabna sadar upazila.

Three Rab personnel were also injured during the encounter. The dead were identified as Shahidul Islam, 32, son of Ahmed Ali from Sadarpur village of Kumarkhali upazila in Kushtia district and Nasir Uddin, 25, son of Aher Sheikh from Berkalia village of the same upazila.

According to Rab, at around 3:00am, a team of Rab 12 from Pabna camp acted on a tip off and raided Char Ghoshpur village where the criminals belonging to the outlawed party gathered to commit criminal acts.

As soon as Rab reached the spot, the criminals opened fire on Rab. The law enforcers also returned fire prompting a gunfight that lasted around 40 minutes. The two outlaws were found dead after the gunfight was over, claimed Rab.

Habilder M Saifullah and soldiers Shakhawat and Abdus Sattar of Rab were injured in the gunfight.

Rab recovered an Italian 9mm pistol, a Russian rifle, a shutter gun and 12 bullets from the scene.

The dead were accused in several criminal cases, Rab said.

2 RU JCD men held by Rab

RU CORRESPONDENT

Members of Rapid Action Battalion (Rab) yesterday arrested a Jatiyatabadi Chhatra Dal (JCD) leader at Binodpur near Rajshahi University (RU) campus.

Asif Iqbal Romel is a JCD joint-convenor of Nabab Abdul Latif Hall unit and a final year honours student of law and justice department.

Campus sources said at around 12:00 noon, a Rab team picked up Romel when he was gossiping with his party men at Binodpur.

Romel was a wanted criminal and involved in crimes like terrorism, snatching and assaulting journalist and teacher.

Earlier on Saturday, Rab also arrested JCD Joint Convener Al Mamun of Ziaur Rahman Hall and a close associate of Romel on similar allegations, sources said.

The JCD leaders were handed over to Matirher Police Station.

Meanwhile, many mid-level JCD cadres have left the campus after being informed of the arrest of their front ranking leaders.

RU Proctor Enamul Haque told newsmen that he had heard about the arrest of JCD men Romel and Mamun.

Ctg-Karachi direct shipping service stressed

UNB, Dhaka

Pakistan High Commissioner in Dhaka Alamgir Babar yesterday stressed the need for direct shipping service between the Chittagong and Karachi seaports to reduce transport cost.

The envoy laid the emphasis at a meeting with Communication Adviser Major General (ret'd) MA Matin at his office in the city yesterday.

Babar said Pakistan imports the lion's portion of Bangladeshi jute, saying, "Transport costs will reduce and both the jute growers and buyers gain more profit if Bangladesh transports jute to Pakistan through its own ships".

As per the rule, Bangladeshi flag-carrier ships can carry 50 percent of exported jute, he added.

The Adviser assured him of considering the matter and taking necessary measures in this regard, said an official release.
