50 years of Shaheed Bir Uttam Lt. Anwar Girls' School & College -Excellence in Diversity

Sarah Z H

BACK in 1957 there used to be a vaguely populated primary school in the tranquil surroundings of Dacca cantonment. An institution initially constructed in order to educate the children of defense officers. Later, in 1959, it emerged as a junior high school eventually paving its way towards the establishment of a consummate high school that brought into being one of today's most prestigious institutions imparting education to girls. It was named after the valiant Liberation War martyr Lt. Md Anwar Hossain in 1972.Thus the journey of Shaheed Bir Uttam Lt. Anwar Girls School began. Sequentially in 1990 it was upgraded into a college.

Since its inauguration fifty years ago Shaheed Anwar Girls School and College has never retreated but only remained converged to thrive further. Throughout the years it has worked hard to achieve excellence and proved its efficiency on the matter. The SSC and HSC results of academic year 2005 and 2006 have been an immense success making the institution a brand name for quality education. Currently it is hosting a batch of more than 150 teaching staff and 4 thousand students altogether. It houses all modern facilities including science labs, an affluent library and a very well- maintained campus for its students.

In 2007, the institution stepped into its Golden Jubilee year and to mark the occasion a two day long program was organized. The eventful days of 15 and 16 February comprised of many joyful celebrations. The first day of celebration involved three significant parts. Chief Guest of the day was Lt. General Moyeen U. Ahmed. He was cordially welcomed by the acting principal Col. Md. Abdul Baten, president of the college management committee, Brgd.General Nizam Ahmed, and OSASA (Old Student's Association of Shaheed Anwar) chairperson, Begum Nazneen Shakil. Later the chief guest was escorted by Ser. Joshepha Elizabeth's train of cadets to the stage. The Principal of the institution and president of the college management committee respectively gave their introductory speeches. Both of them emphasised on the importance of extra curricular activities and the endeavor of Shaheed Anwar in practicing them. They thanked all the people related to the flourishing of their beloved institution. The opening followed chief guest's speech and honoring of four past meritorious students of the institution. A large number of former teachers and diligent army officials were seen to adorn the audience with their revered presence.

The SSC and HSC results of academic year 2005 and 2006 have been an immense success making the institution a brand name for quality education. Currently it is hosting a batch of more than 150 teaching staff and 4 thousand students altogether.