Position Vacancy Announcement
The United States Agency for International Development/Bangladesh (USAID) invites applications from Bangladeshi nationals for the position of Project Development Specialist for its Program Office (PRO).
The Project Development Specialist will serve as USAID's expert on all development project designs. She will work in a collaborative manner interacting with all USAID offices, government of Bangladesh officials, personnel from other donors, the NGO community, and US Embassy personnel. The Project Development Specialist will form part of an 8 person Program Office at USAID.
The Project Development Specialist will advise, guide, and facilitate the planning, design, development, negotiation, and implementation of all USAID development projects. More specially, she will advise and assist on planning and setting of priorities for new projects, establishing levels of material, technical and financial assistance required for projects, and recommend sources to be developed in providing funding and technical assistance. The Project Development Specialist is also responsible for advising on US government rules, regulations, policies and procedures which must be observed in the preparation of project documents. In addition, she will work with technical teams on all activities to support program analysis, budgeting, planning, design, authorisation, implementation and reporting. Functions include analyzing and assessing Bangladesh's development potential; economic, political, and social problems and needs; program and policy formulation and defining the roles and objectives of US assistance to Bangladesh.
The Project Development Specialist will work with the Supervisory and Deputy Program Officers to advise on program policy and objectives. Consequently, she will need to understand and evaluate the respective contributions and interrelationships of individual sector programs and projects toward achievement of Bangladesh's overall development objectives. In so doing, she must also demonstrate a thorough understanding of the Mission and USAID Washington strategies as well as the socio-economic context in Bangladesh. With this understanding, she will be able to competently make judgments and recommendations on priorities and explain tradeoffs among the various ongoing and proposed program activities.
Required Qualifications:
The applicant should be a Bangladeshi national. The applicant must be able to pass security clearance and health screening for fitness to work. Women and minorities are encouraged to apply. USAID is an equal opportunity employer.
1. Education: Master's degree, or its equivalent in post-graduate studies, in social sciences such as sociology, economics, or in another field relevant to development studies, research and international programs.
2. Language Proficiency: Excellent communications skills, reading, writing and speaking abilities in Bangla and English required.
3. Prior Work Experience: Three to five years of progressively responsible professional experience in program management in the public or private sector, at least two years of which should entail experience working with or for a foreign government, international NGO or foreign donor agency. Previous experience should include responsibility for exercising judgment and providing solid analysis leading to sound decision-making on development assistance projects.
4. Knowledge: A thorough knowledge of the principles and best practices in project development and design, implementation modalities, impact assessment and evaluation of development projects and programs. A comprehensive knowledge or potential to rapidly acquire knowledge of foreign government, international NGO or foreign donor agency regulations, procedures and documents relating to strategic and program planning, activity design, impact assessment and evaluation requirements. Must possess a standard knowledge of host government policies which bear upon assistance programs and the development context. A working knowledge of gender in development principles.
5. Skills and Abilities: Strong inter-personal and intercultural skills to ensure effective team relations. Strong communication and negotiation skills to interpret foreign government and donor agency policies and best practices. Ability to understand and explain the policy environment in which the agency operates and to articulate broader program goals and objectives ensuring that agency-funded activities are effectively addressing strategic goals and agency policy. Management and organisational skills to work with numerous teams, identifying priority actions and taking initiative for follow through. Strong, professional computer skills, full range of MS Office software, including spreadsheet, database, powerpoint and graphics.
Interested applicants must submit a resume along with a recent photograph and a one-page cover letter stating his/her motivation, level of education, relevant experience and other qualifications for this position. No other documentation will be accepted. Please submit to the Human Resources Section, GPO Box 2593, Ramna, Dhaka-1000, no later than April 05, 2007. Applications received beyond the date specified will not be considered. Only short-listed candidates will be notified. D-250
