

TALE OF THE SHELTERLESS

HOW many people are homeless in the city? It is hard to get an accurate statistics on that number. In the last couple of decades the city has seen rapid urban developments including posh shopping malls, fashion cafes and fast food shops. The housing sector also grew enormously turning the city into a concrete jungle. But it all failed to put a stopper on the increasing number of the shelterless.

Profil

Srabon Reza

A young, promising photographer and contributor photojournalist at a local daily. Received 15 awards from different institutions. His works titled 'Dream Knitting' were published recently in photography vibes, circle of photographers, Montreal, Canada.