RU Islamic history Dept. will celebrate golden Jubilee

Aurangazeb Sohel

The Islamic History and Culture department of Rajshahi University (RU) will celebrate their golden jubilee amidst massive enthusiasm of the department on April 12. Around 600 current and former students of the department registered to participate at the daylong colorful program. RU Islamic History and Culture alumni association will start its journey through the golden jubilee. The Silver Jubilee program will be inaugurated by RU Vice-Chancellor Prof. Dr. Altaf Hossain through cutting cake, flying festoons and balloons in the premises of the department. The Department had started its journey in 1956 with a few students. The Department implemented some praiseworthy initiatives for offering quality education in the field such as freeing the department from session jam, and holding regular classes and examinations. A cultural session will be held at the end of the program where artists from within and outside the department will participate.

Debate workshop held at IBA

A workshop on debating style and format was held at IBA on Saturday, March 24, 2007. Two successful ex-debaters of IBA shared their experience of debating in National and international grounds. It was arranged by the recently formed Executive committee of the IBA Debating Club. Around fifty students including the President of IBADC, Shadman Sadikin, General secretary Morshed-Ul-Arefin, Media and Liaison coordinator Fahmida Sultana and other members were present in the workshop. The workshop has been very helpful for young debaters, especially the newly arrived BBA 15th batch.
