Bangladesh to sign UN Convention

UNB, Dhaka

Bangladesh has decided to sign the UN Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities.

It was decided at an inter-ministerial meeting at the Social Welfare Ministry yesterday with Social Welfare Adviser Geetiara Safiya Chowdhury in the chair.

The meeting agreed to sign the Convention as most of its clauses are consistent with Bangladesh's constitution, the Disabled Welfare Act 2001, National Plan of Action on matters of the Disabled 2006 and other existing laws and rules.

Addressing the meeting, Geetiara Safia Chowdhury said Bangladesh attaches top priority to the issue of welfare of the people with disability.

She said with the signing of the convention, the country's image will be further enhanced and its commitment to the well-being of the people with disability will be more strengthened.

Among the Saarc countries, India and Sri Lanka have already signed the Convention.

Social Welfare Secretary MA Hye Hawlader, DG of Social Service Department Hafizul Islam Mia and managing director of Jatiya Protibondhi Unnayan Foundation AKM Azizul Huq attended the meeting.
