Preserving Works of a Maestro

Great personalities are born to glorify the generations of their times as well as those of the future with their great works. A nation has to wait patiently for ages to have brilliant sons who bring pride and honour through meritorious works in their fields. They are not produced in every age or even in every century.

A Different Training for Differently Able 12-13

Action Aid Bangladesh (AAB), an international organization, is currently working in more than fifty countries including Bangladesh to eradicate poverty and injustice from society. In line with its relentless endeavor to create a barrier free society for PWDs (Person With Disabilities), the organization launched a unique project, the first of its kind in Bangladesh.
